

ON FREEDOM OF THE SOUL

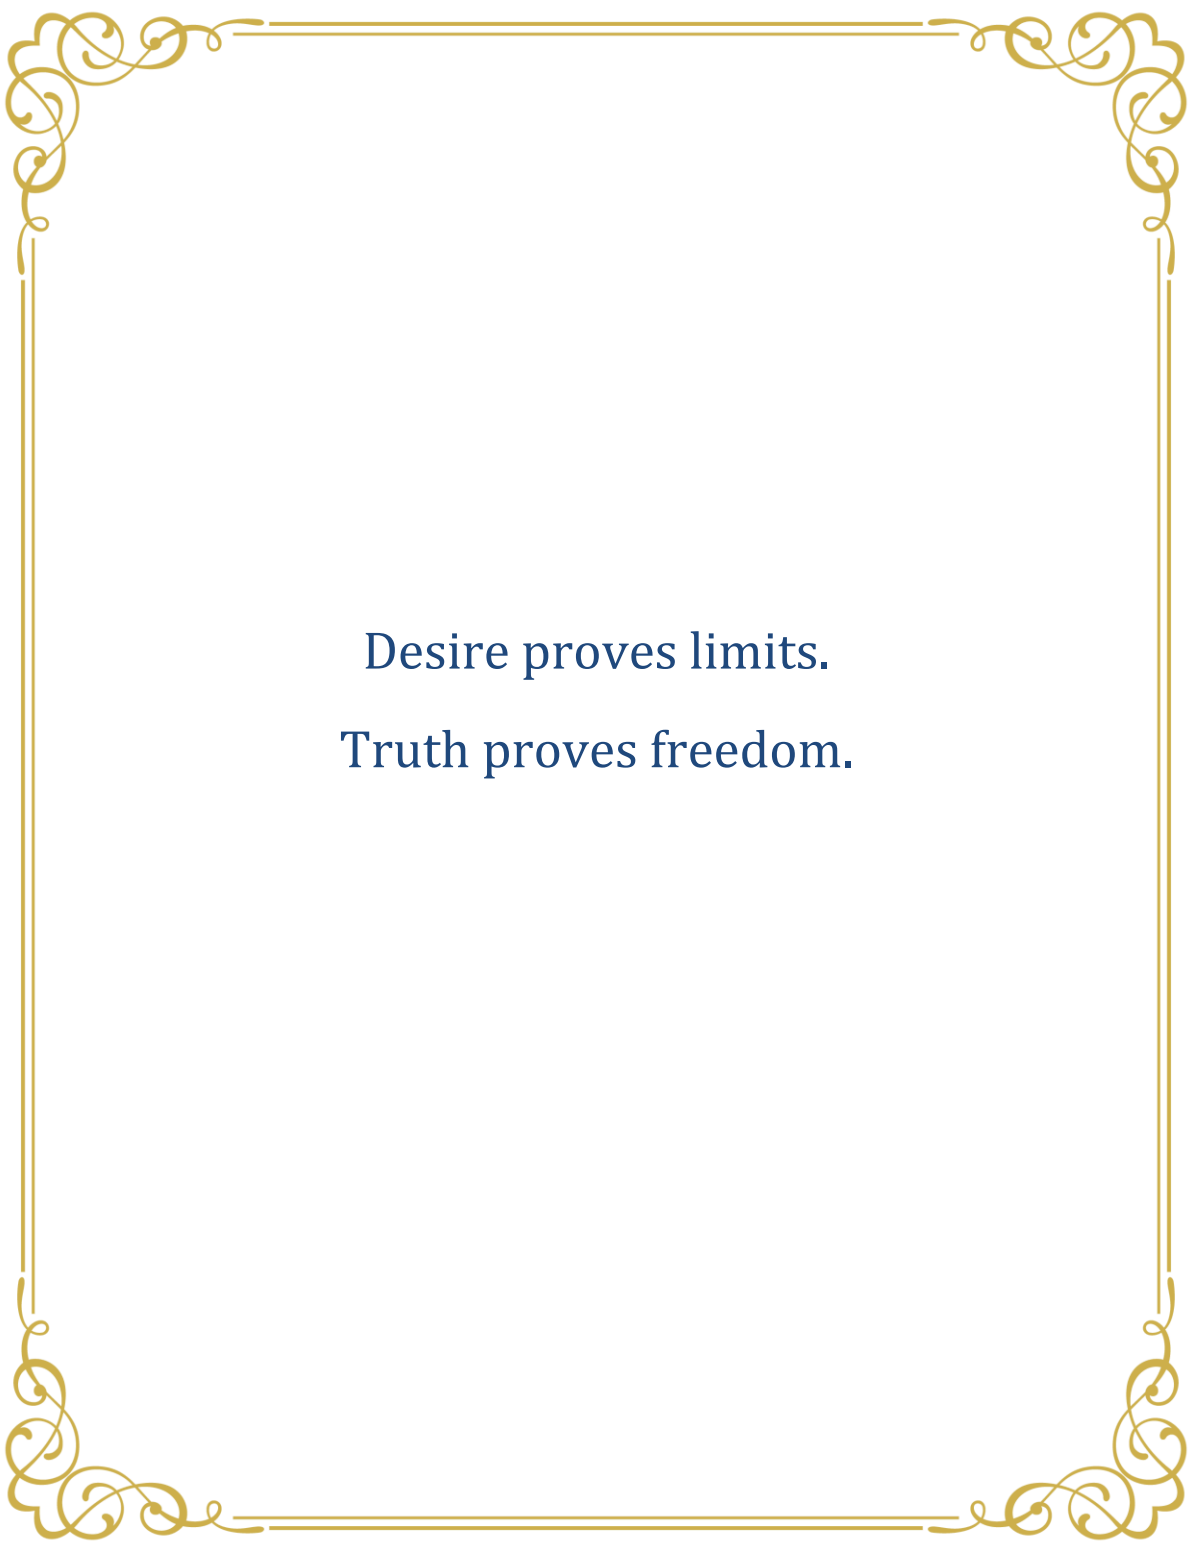

Only limits pose questions.
Infinity is not a question,
Nor is it an answer.

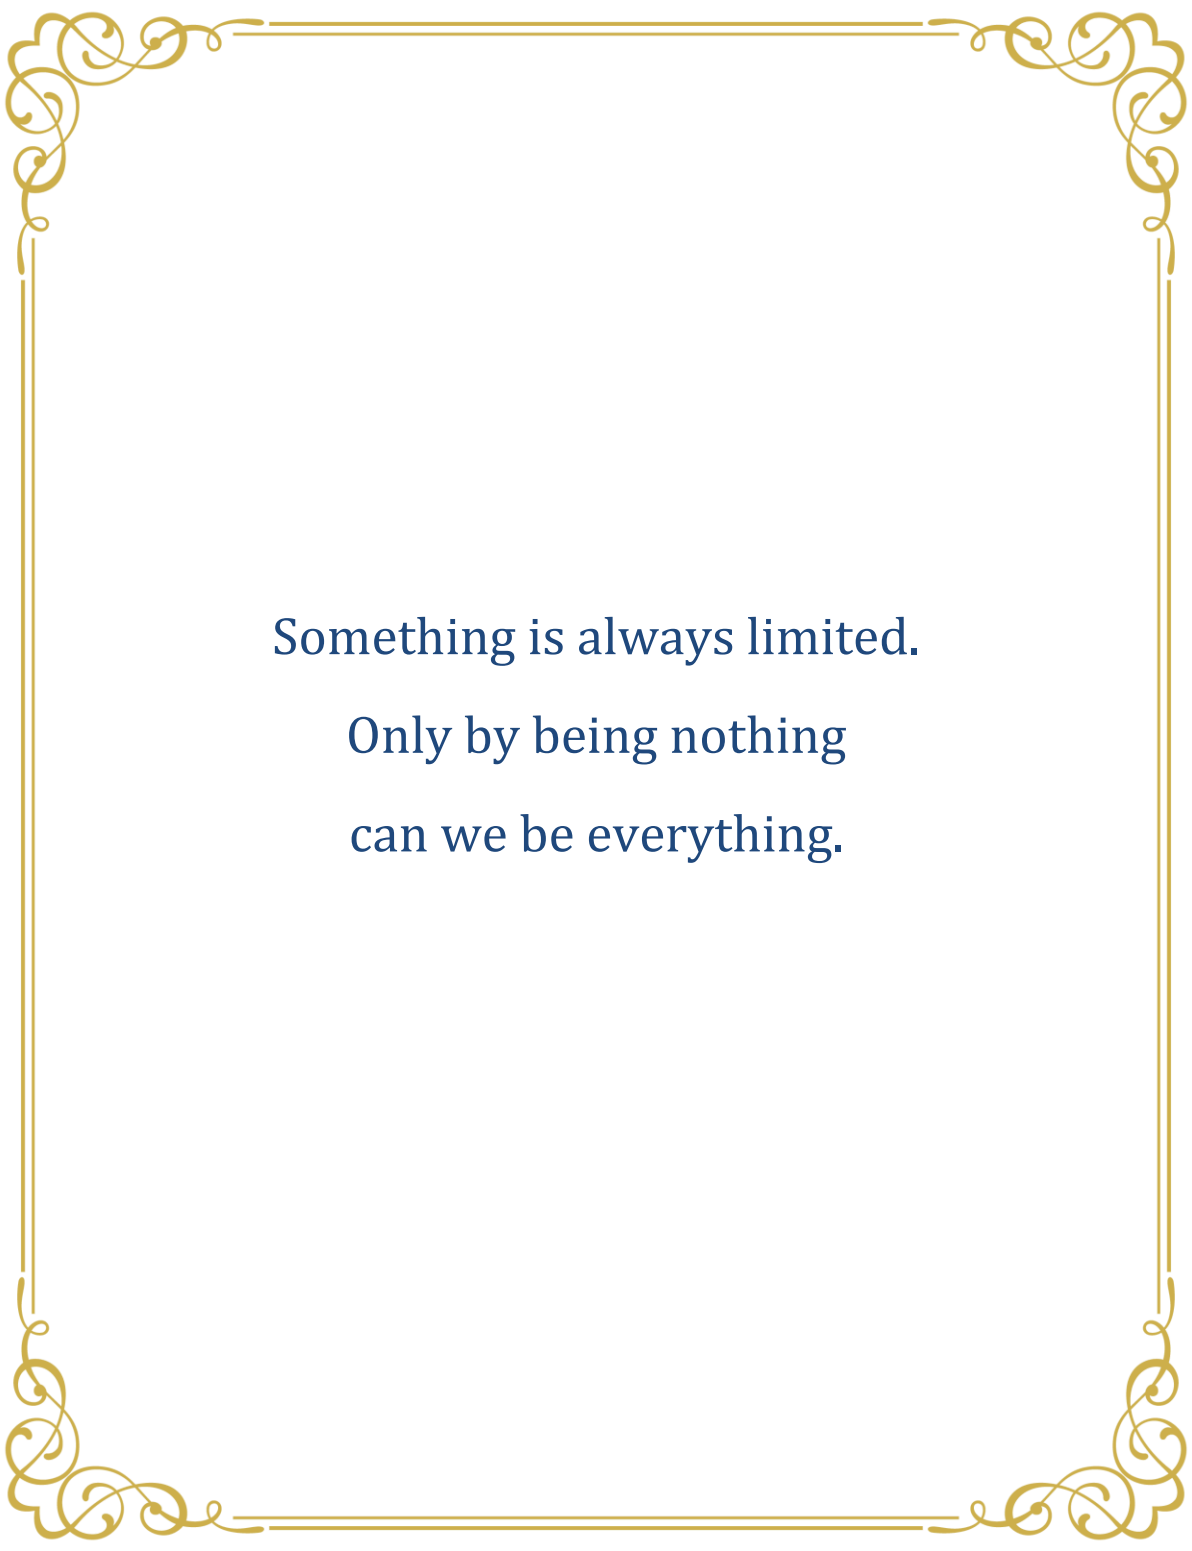

True love is a form
without a limit.
It is the real freedom
All seek.

Those who desire nothing have Truth
as their witness.

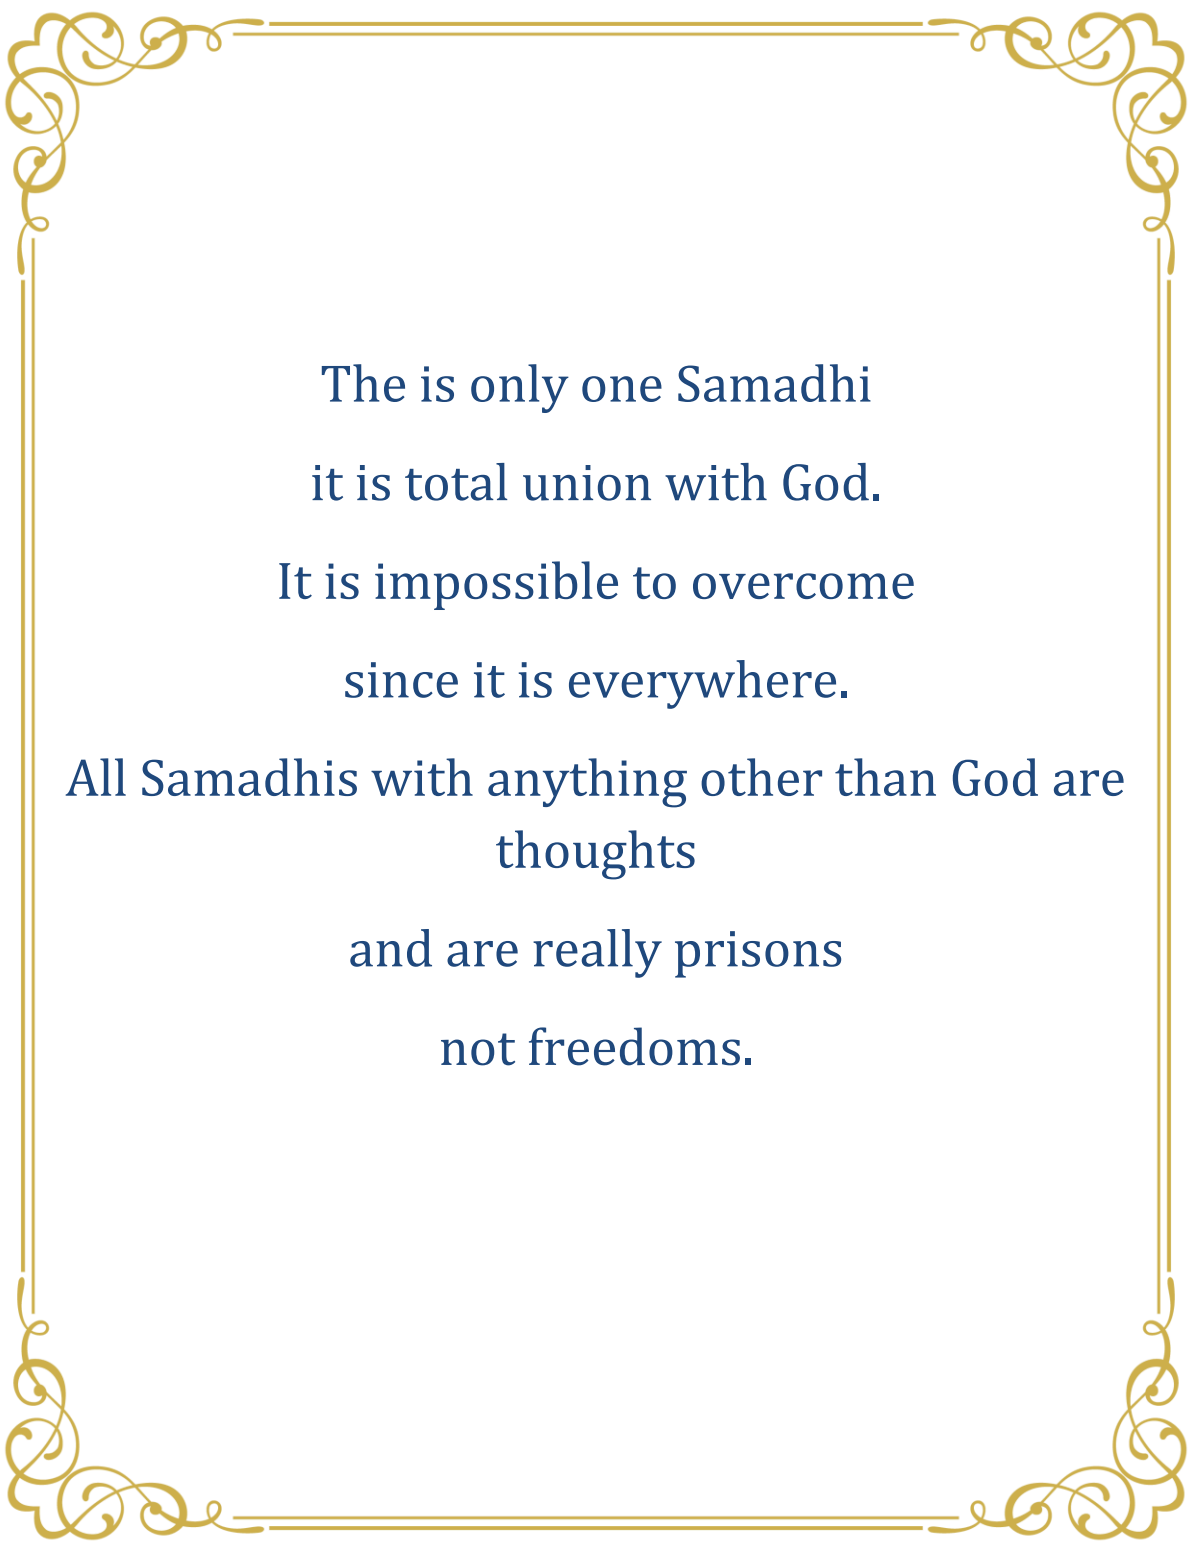

Desire proves limits.
Truth proves freedom.

Something is always limited.
Only by being nothing
can we be everything.

Make Enlightenment your goal, because it is the reason for your existence.

The is only one Samadhi
it is total union with God.
It is impossible to overcome since it is everywhere.

All Samadhis with anything other than God are thoughts
and are really prisons
not freedoms.

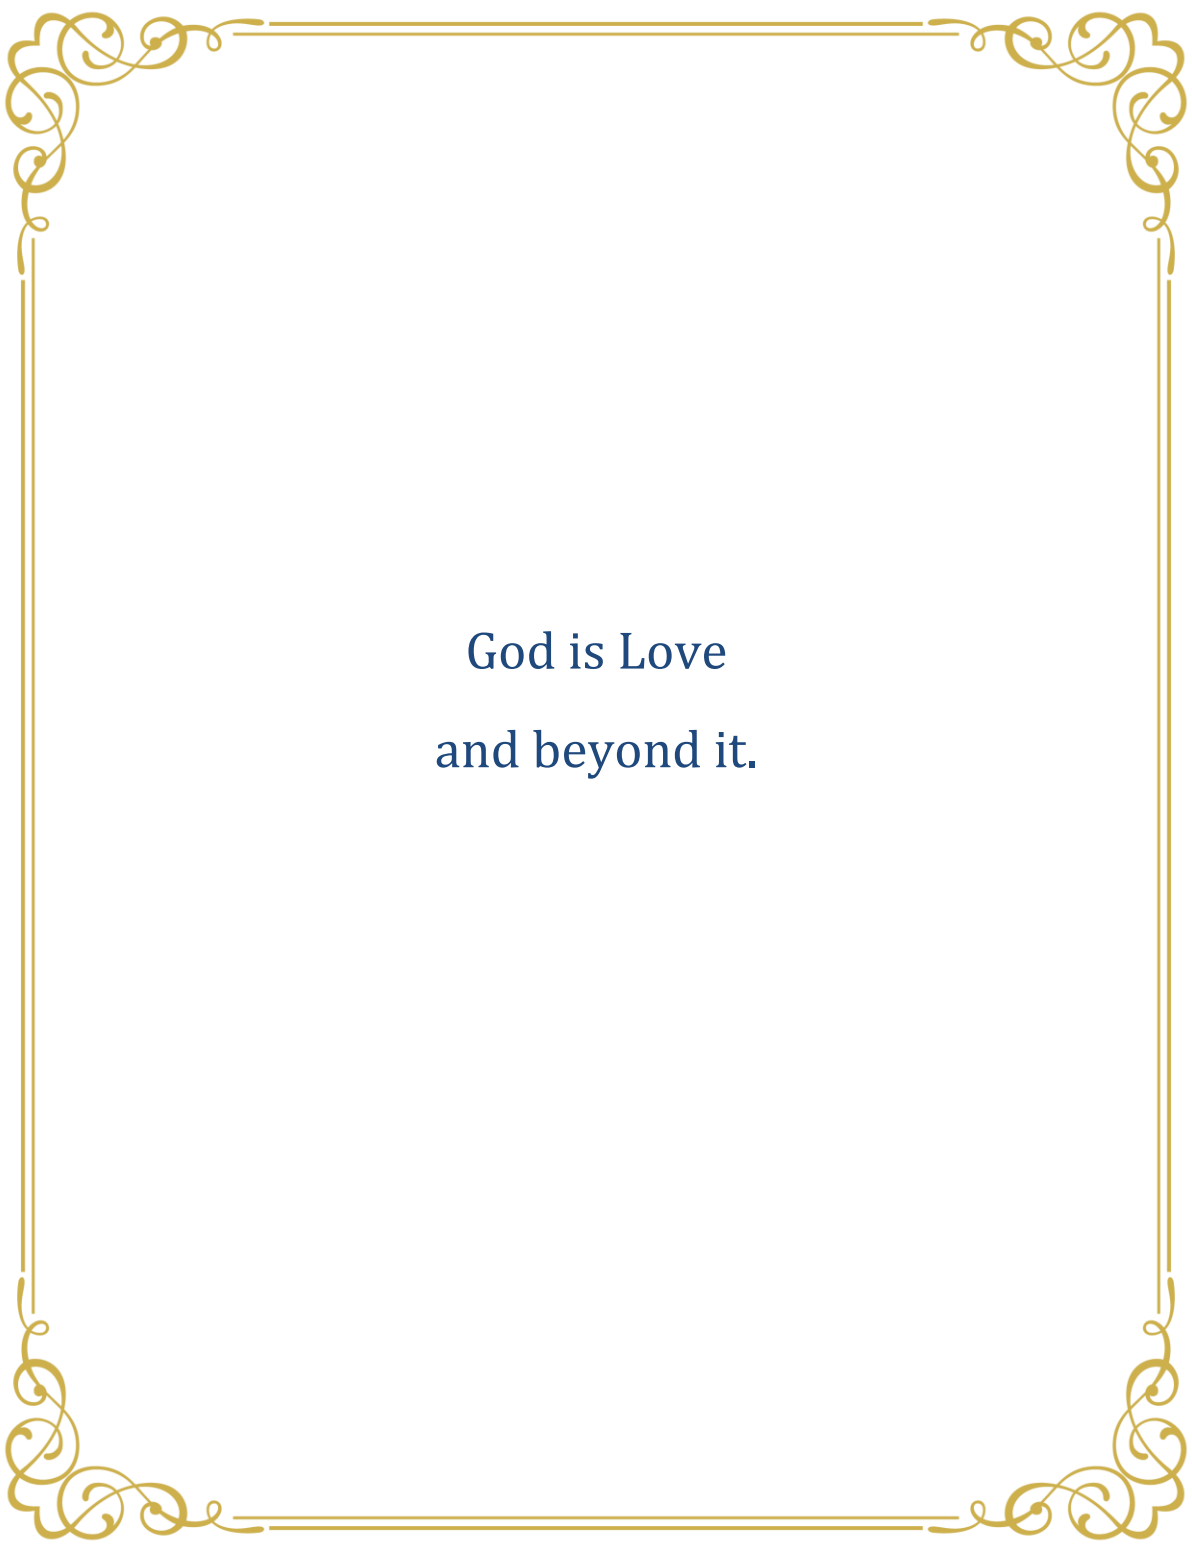

God exists
whether you recognise Him or not.
That is why He is God.

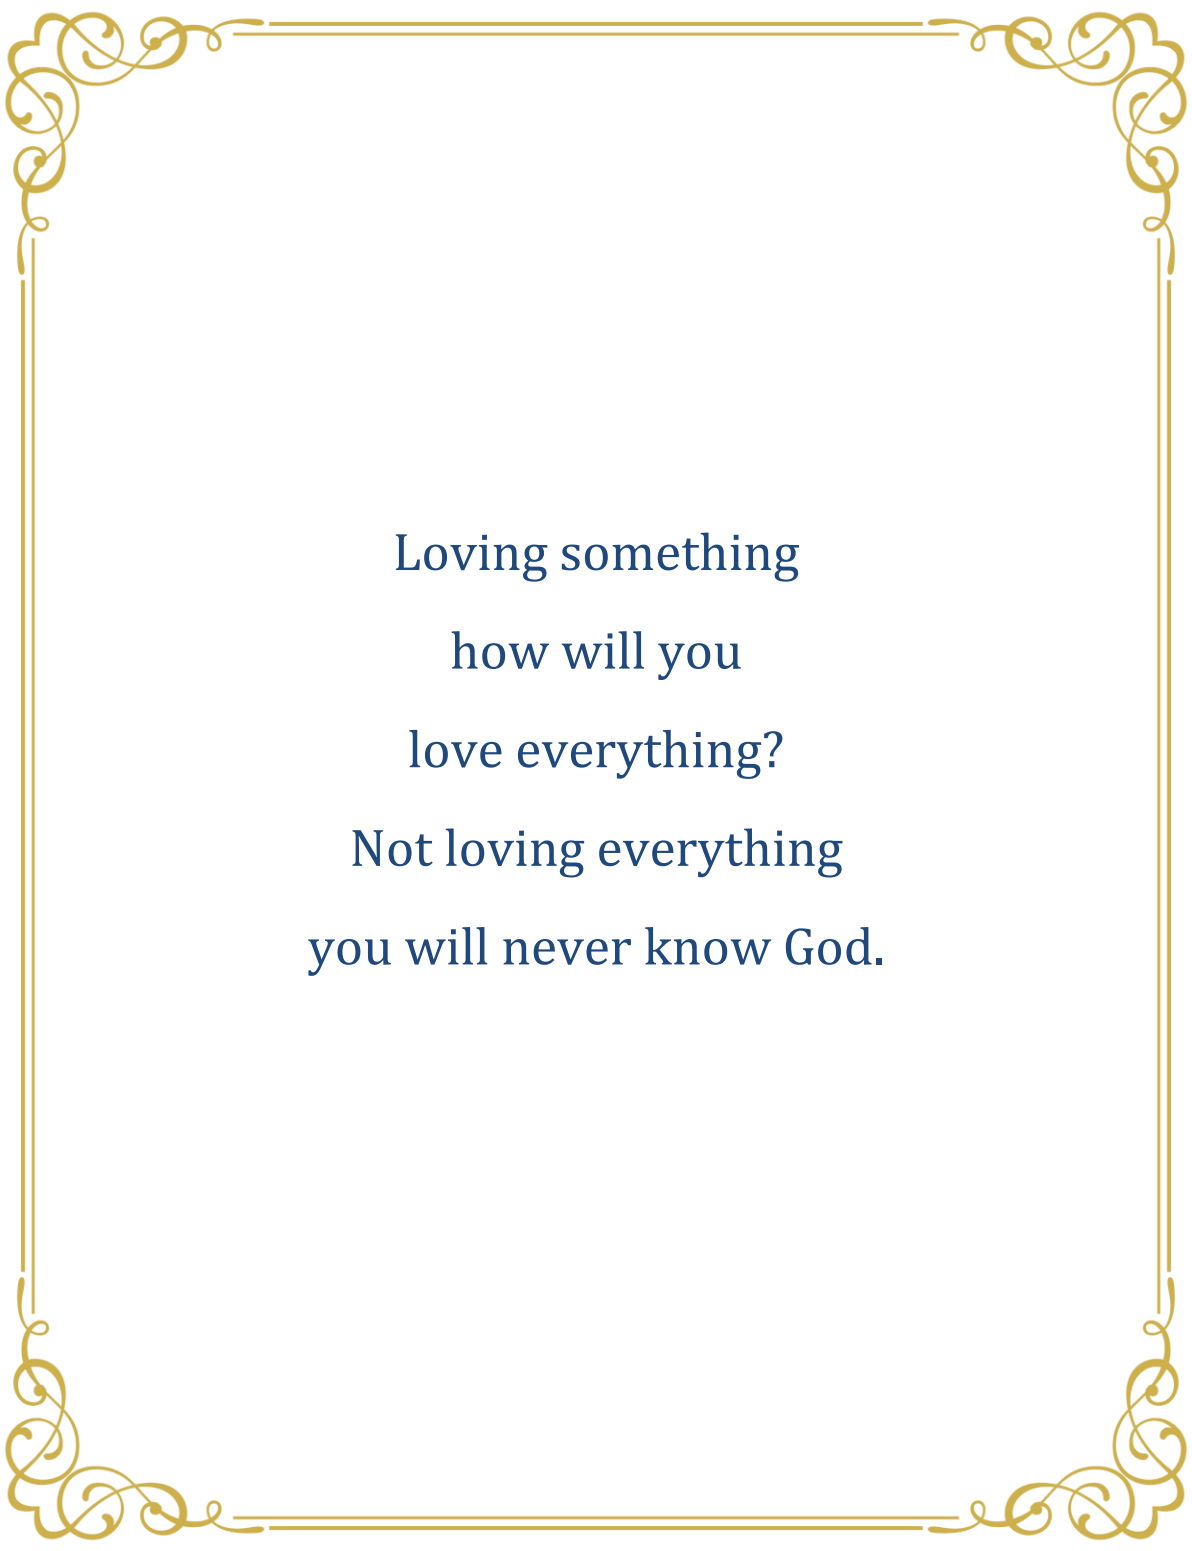

God is everywhere
except where you think
He should be.

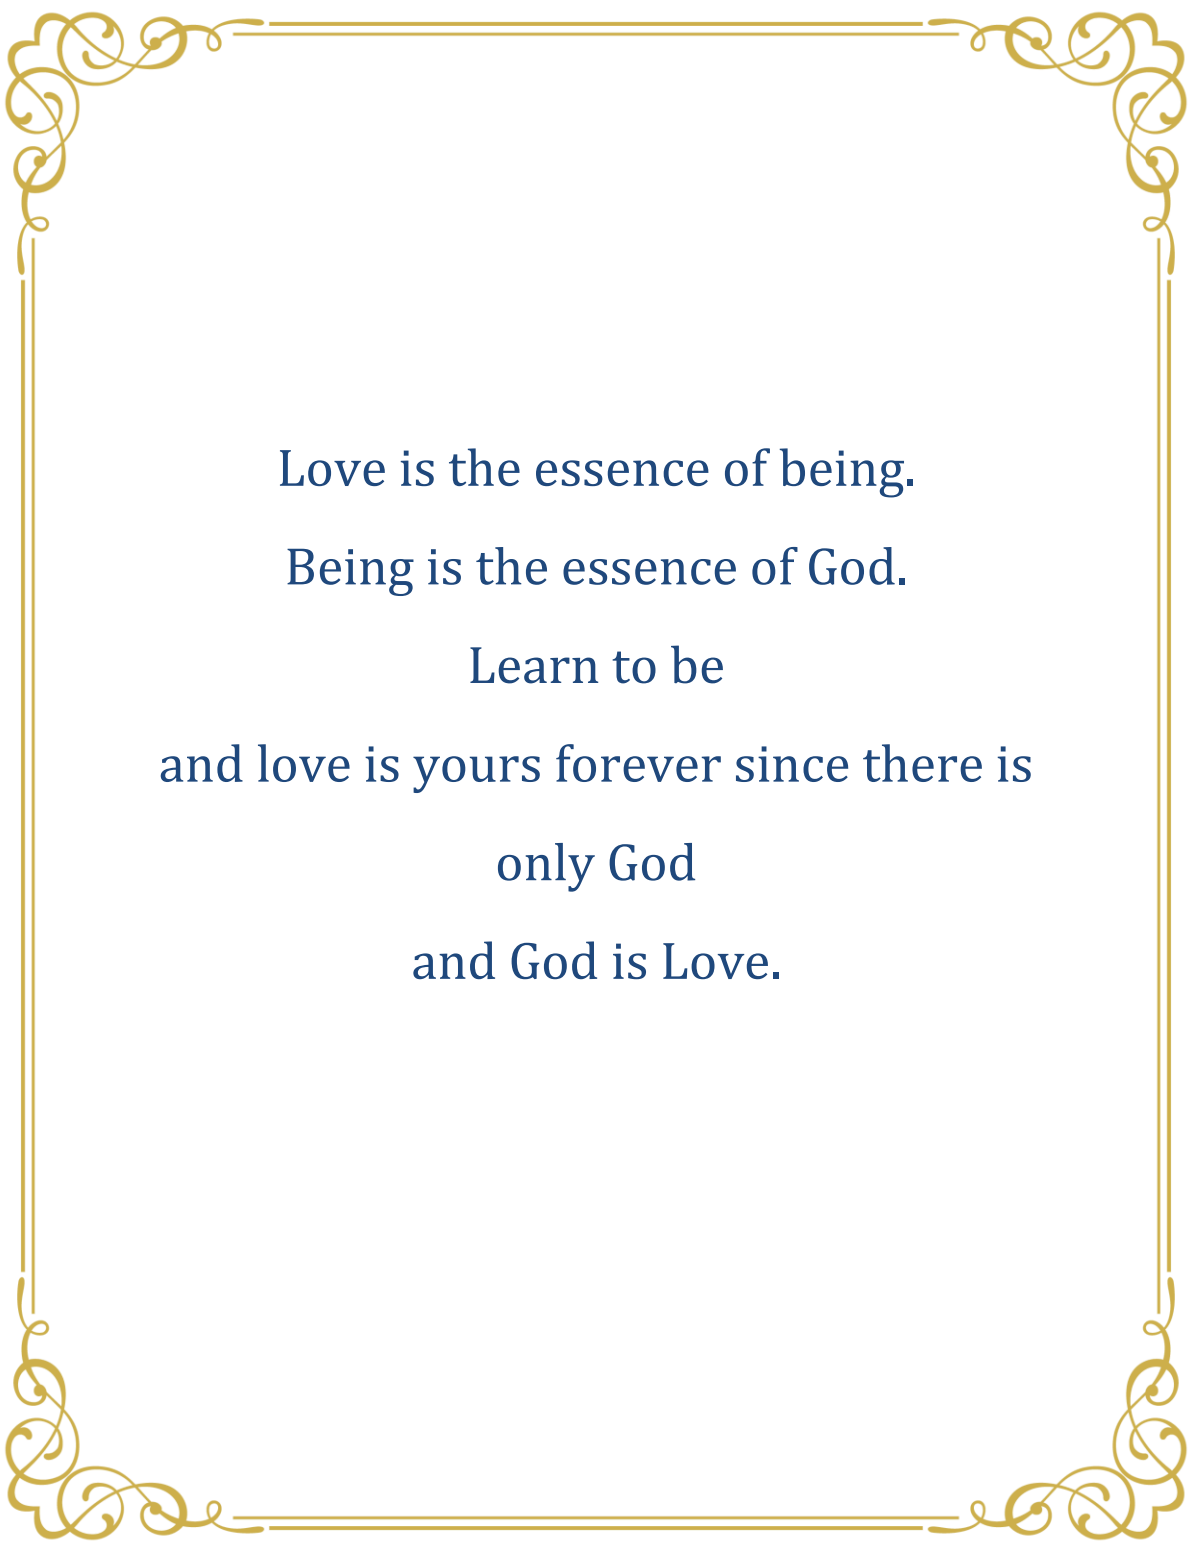

ON LOVE AND WISDOM

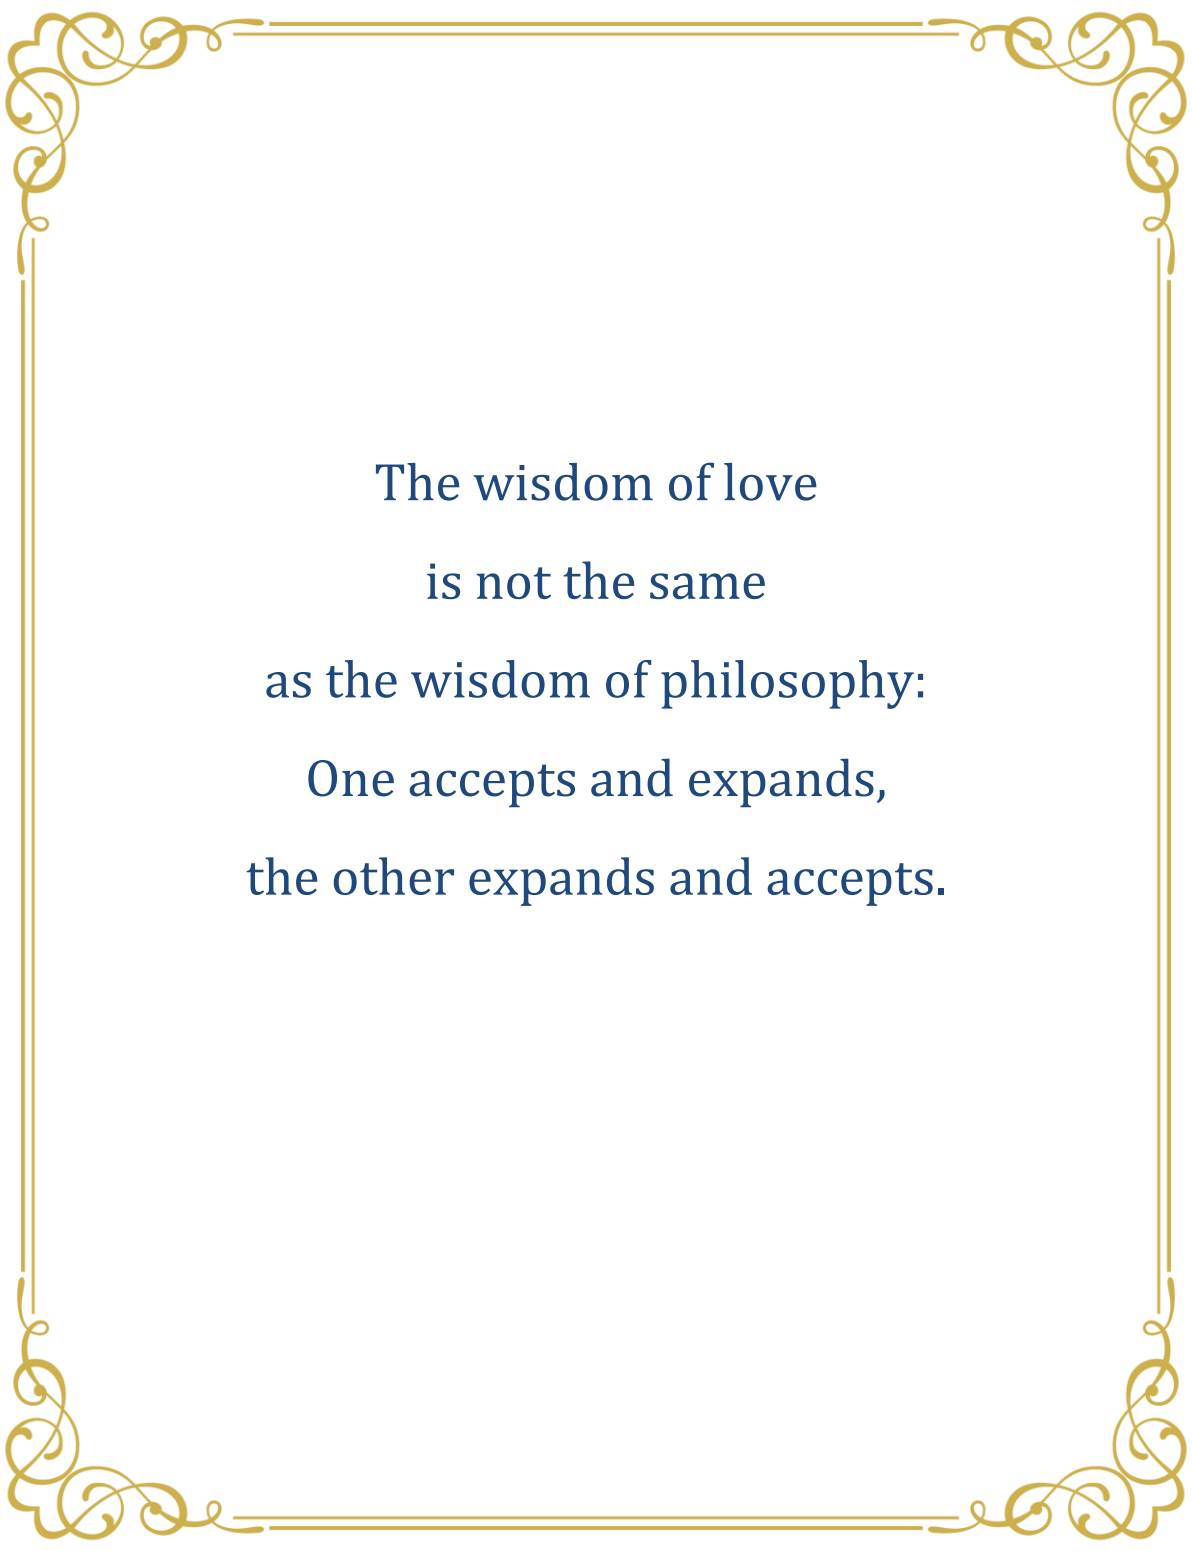

God is Love
and beyond it.

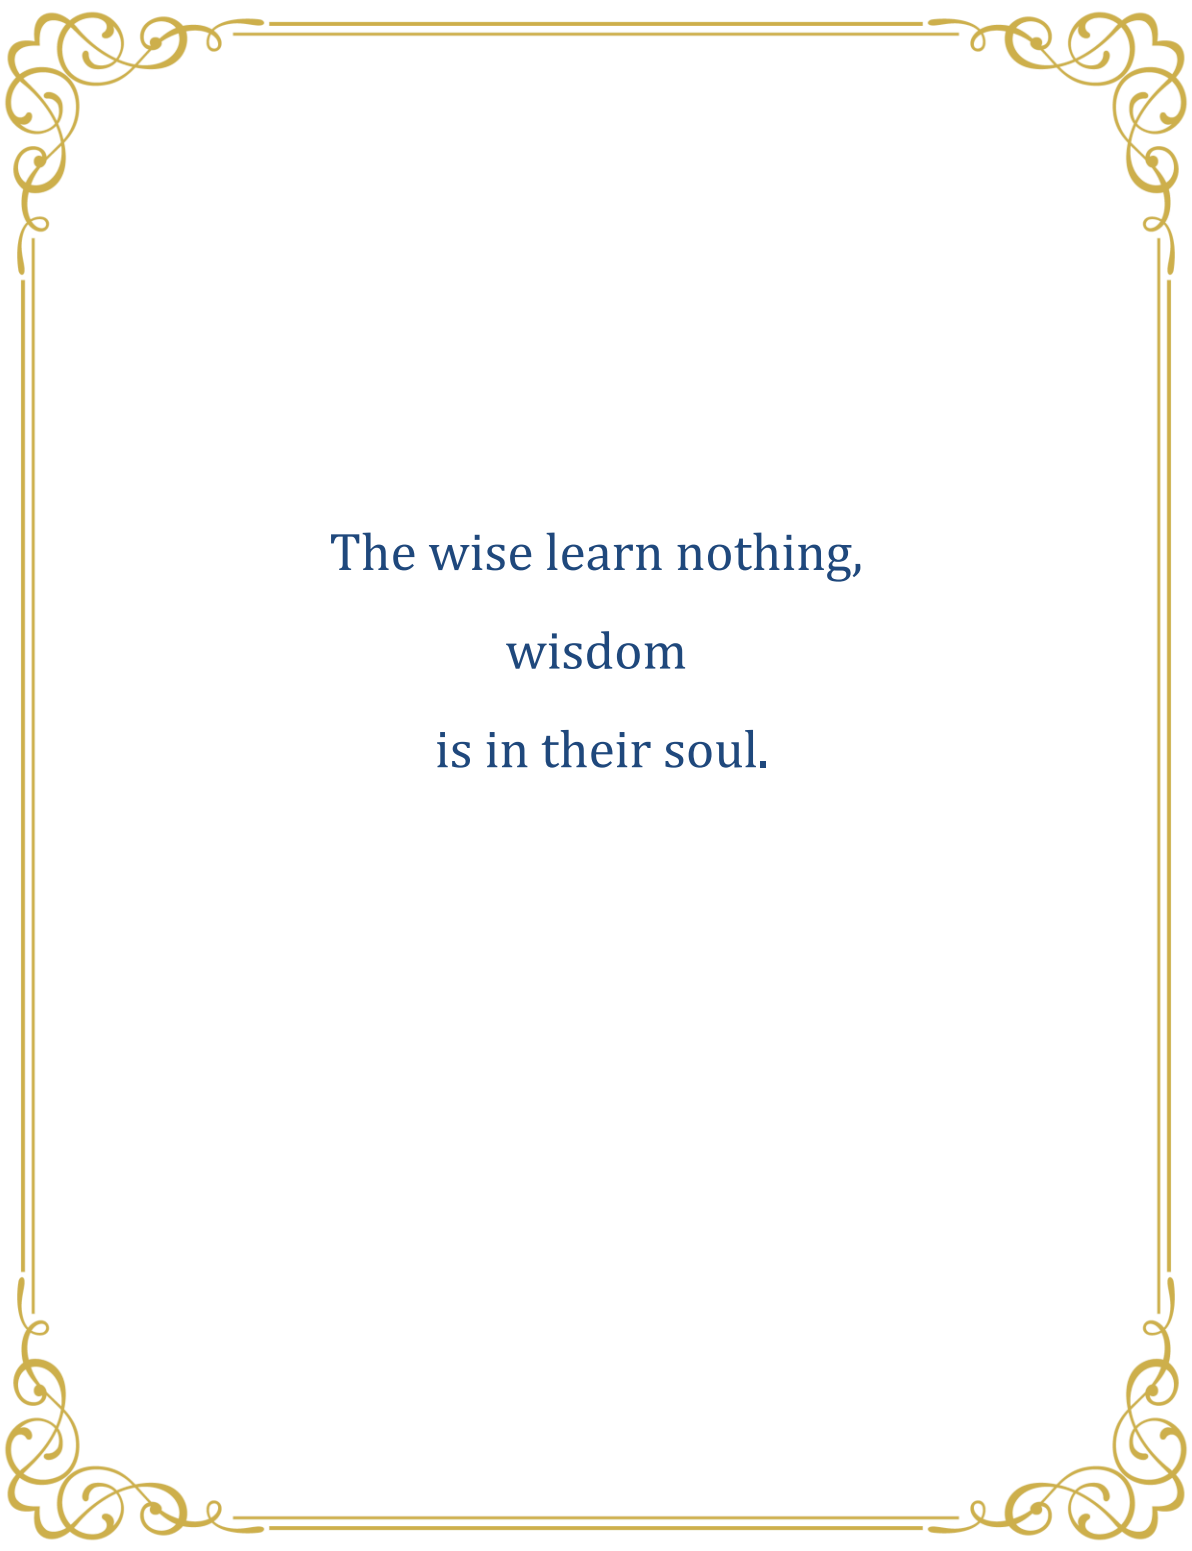

Loving something
how will you
love everything?
Not loving everything
you will never know God.

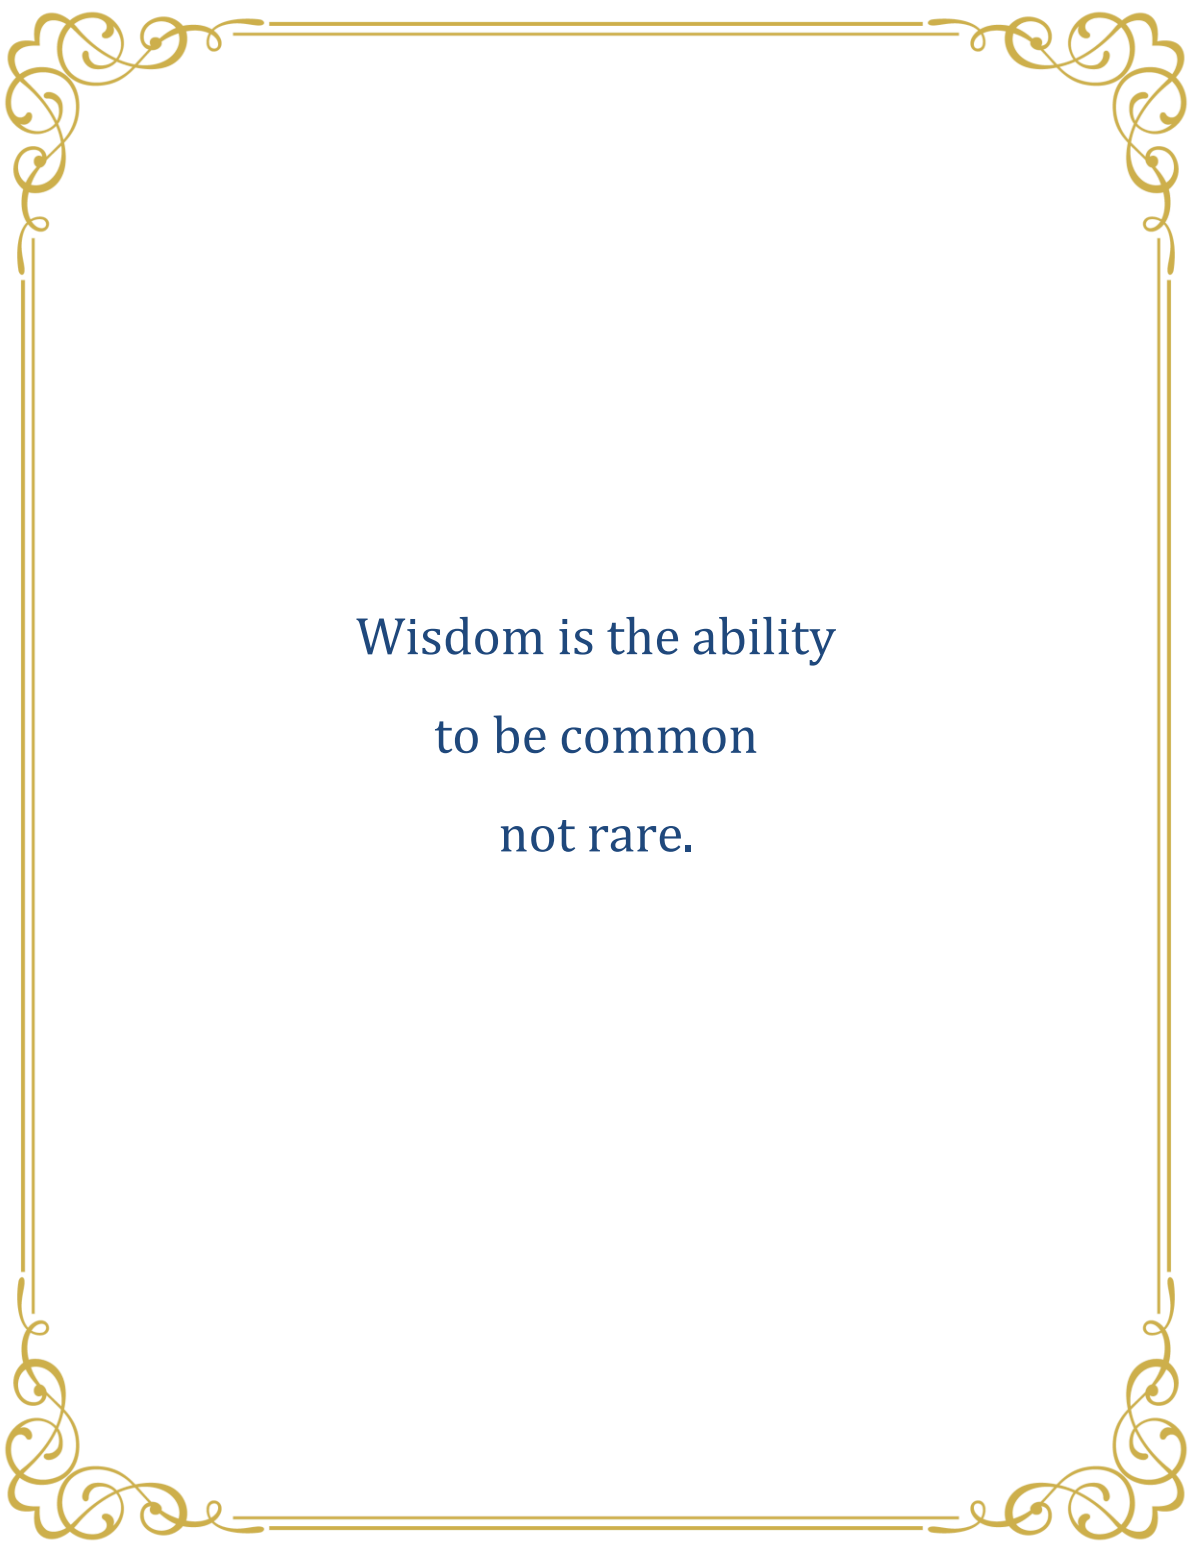

Love is the essence of being.
Being is the essence of God.
Learn to be
and love is yours forever since there is only God
and God is Love.

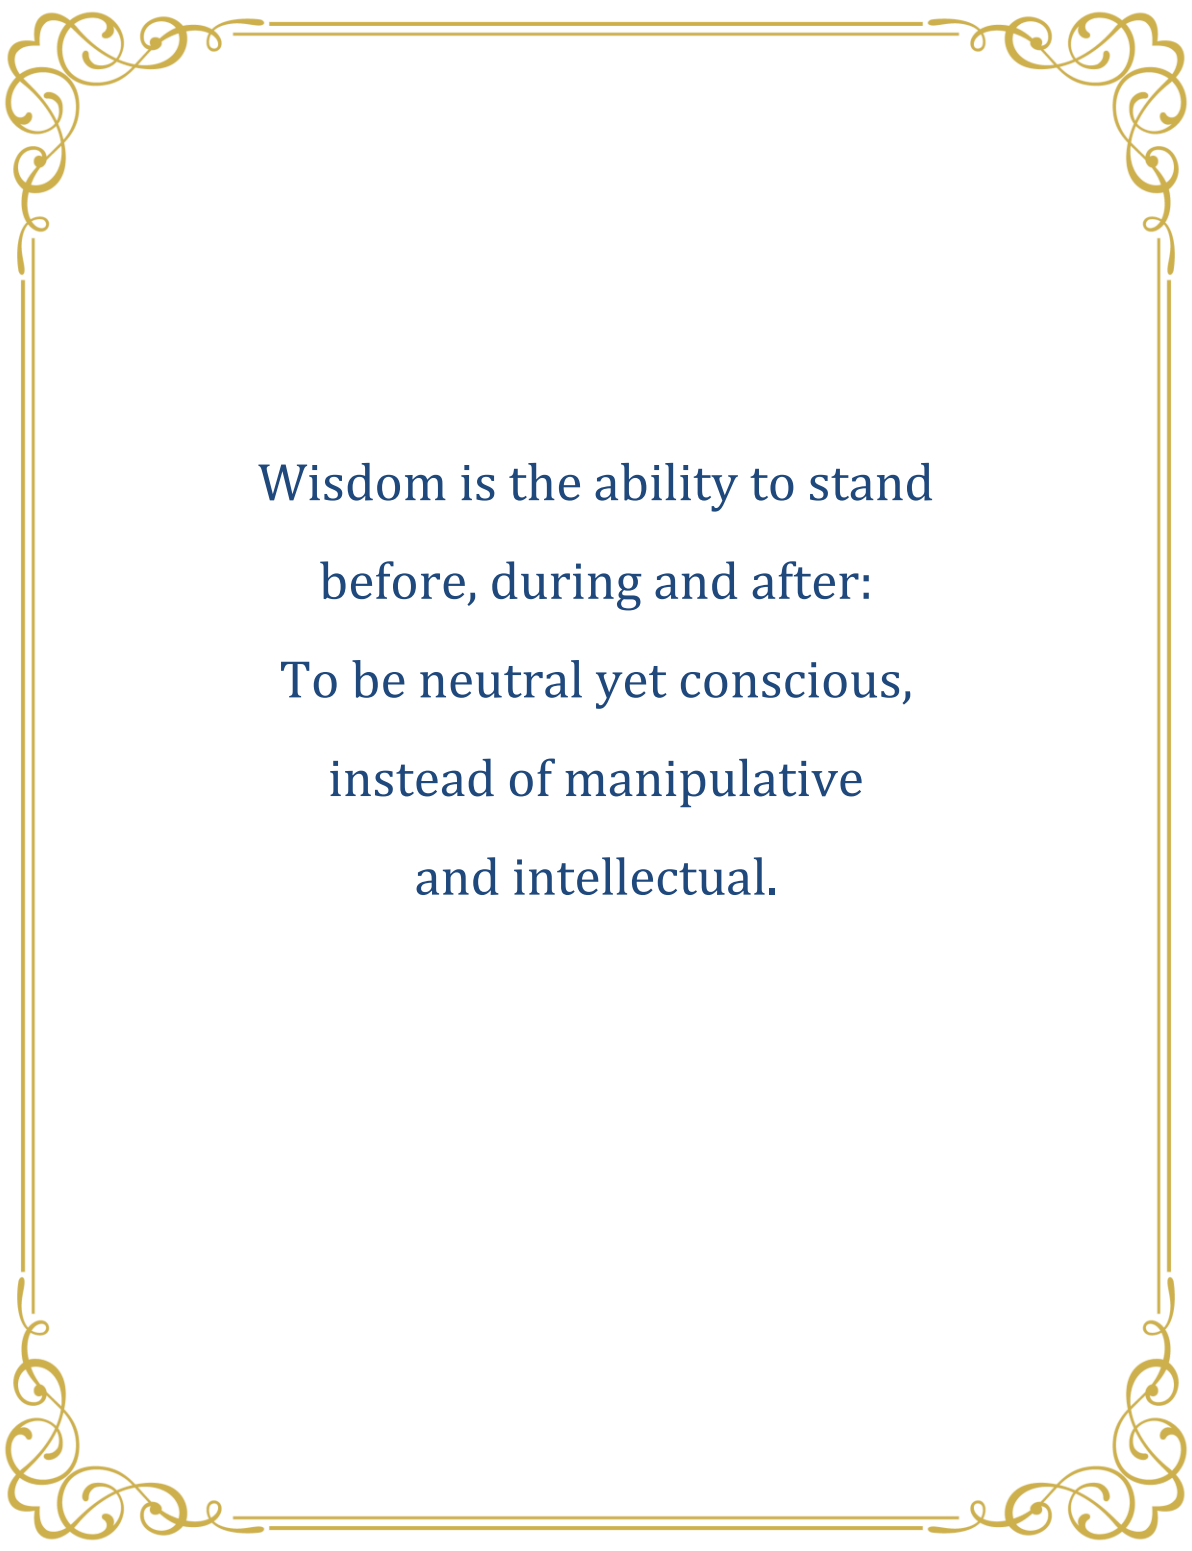

The wisdom of love
is not the same
as the wisdom of philosophy:
One accepts and expands,
the other expands and accepts.

The wise learn nothing, wisdom
is in their soul.

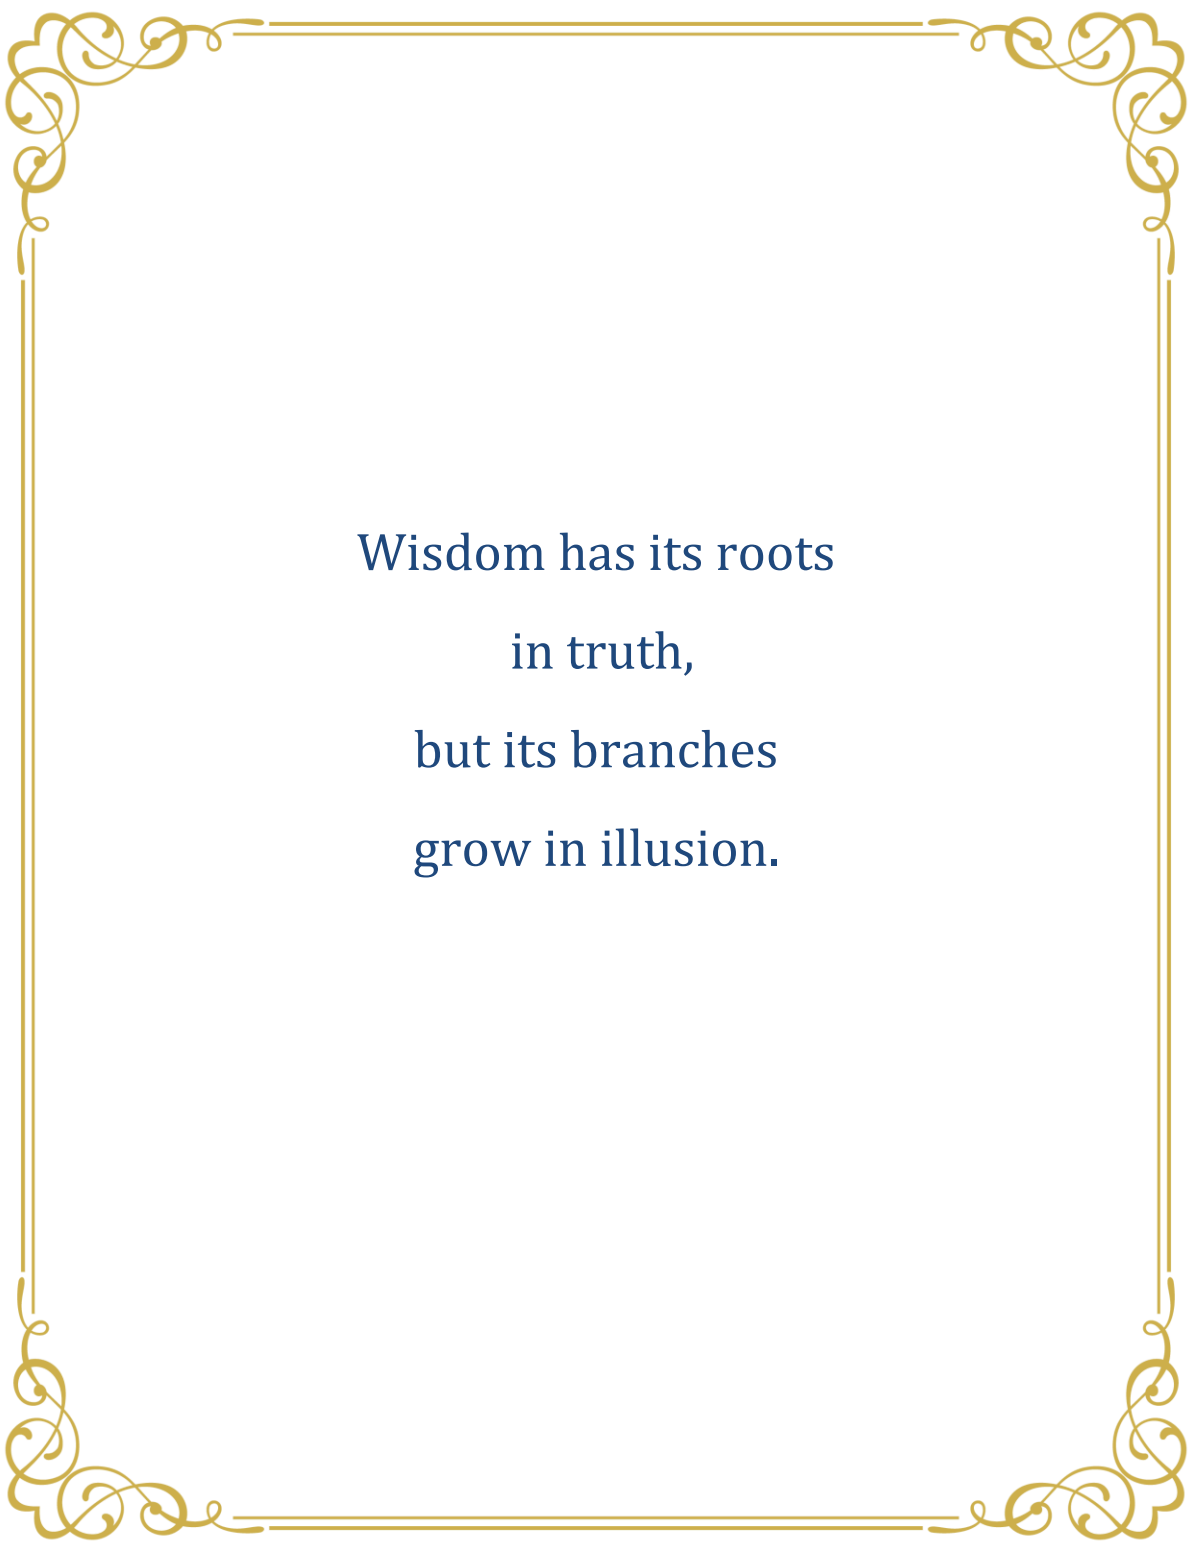

Wisdom is the ability
to be common
not rare.

Wisdom is the ability to stand before, during and after:
To be neutral yet conscious,
instead of manipulative and intellectual.

Wisdom is to know
what's knowing,
not knowing
what is known.

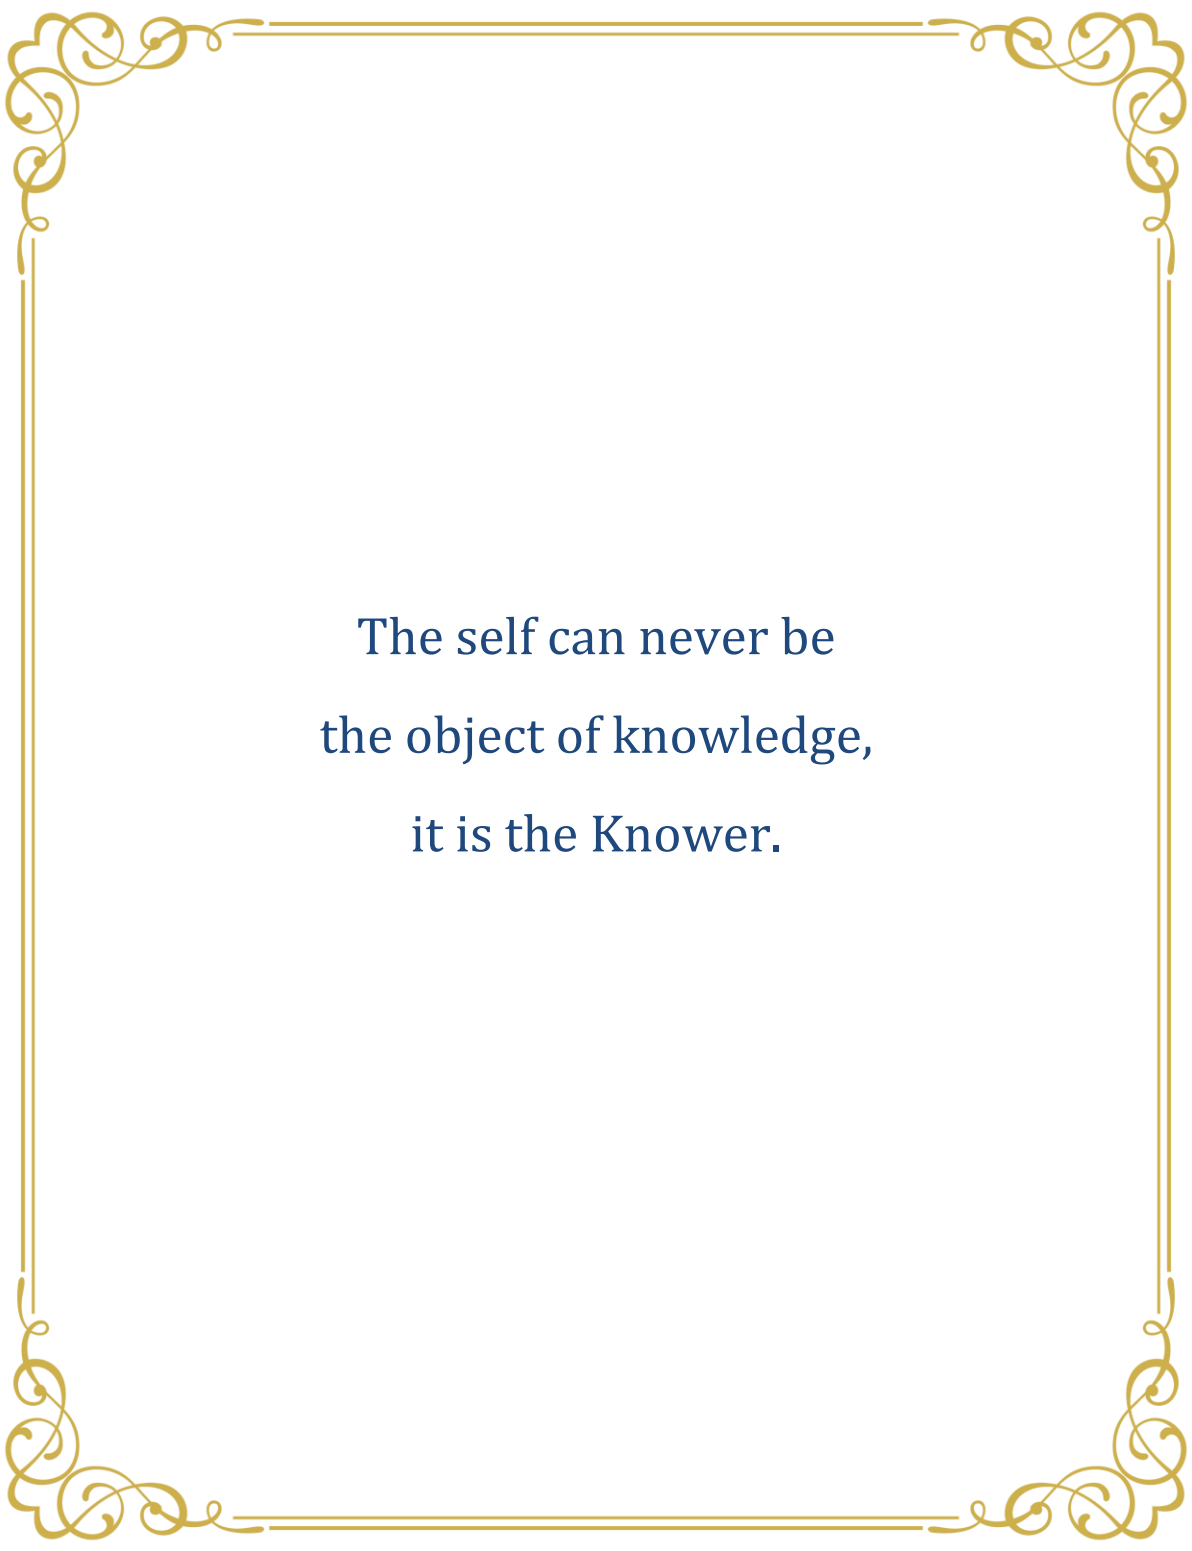

Wisdom has its roots
in truth,
but its branches
grow in illusion.

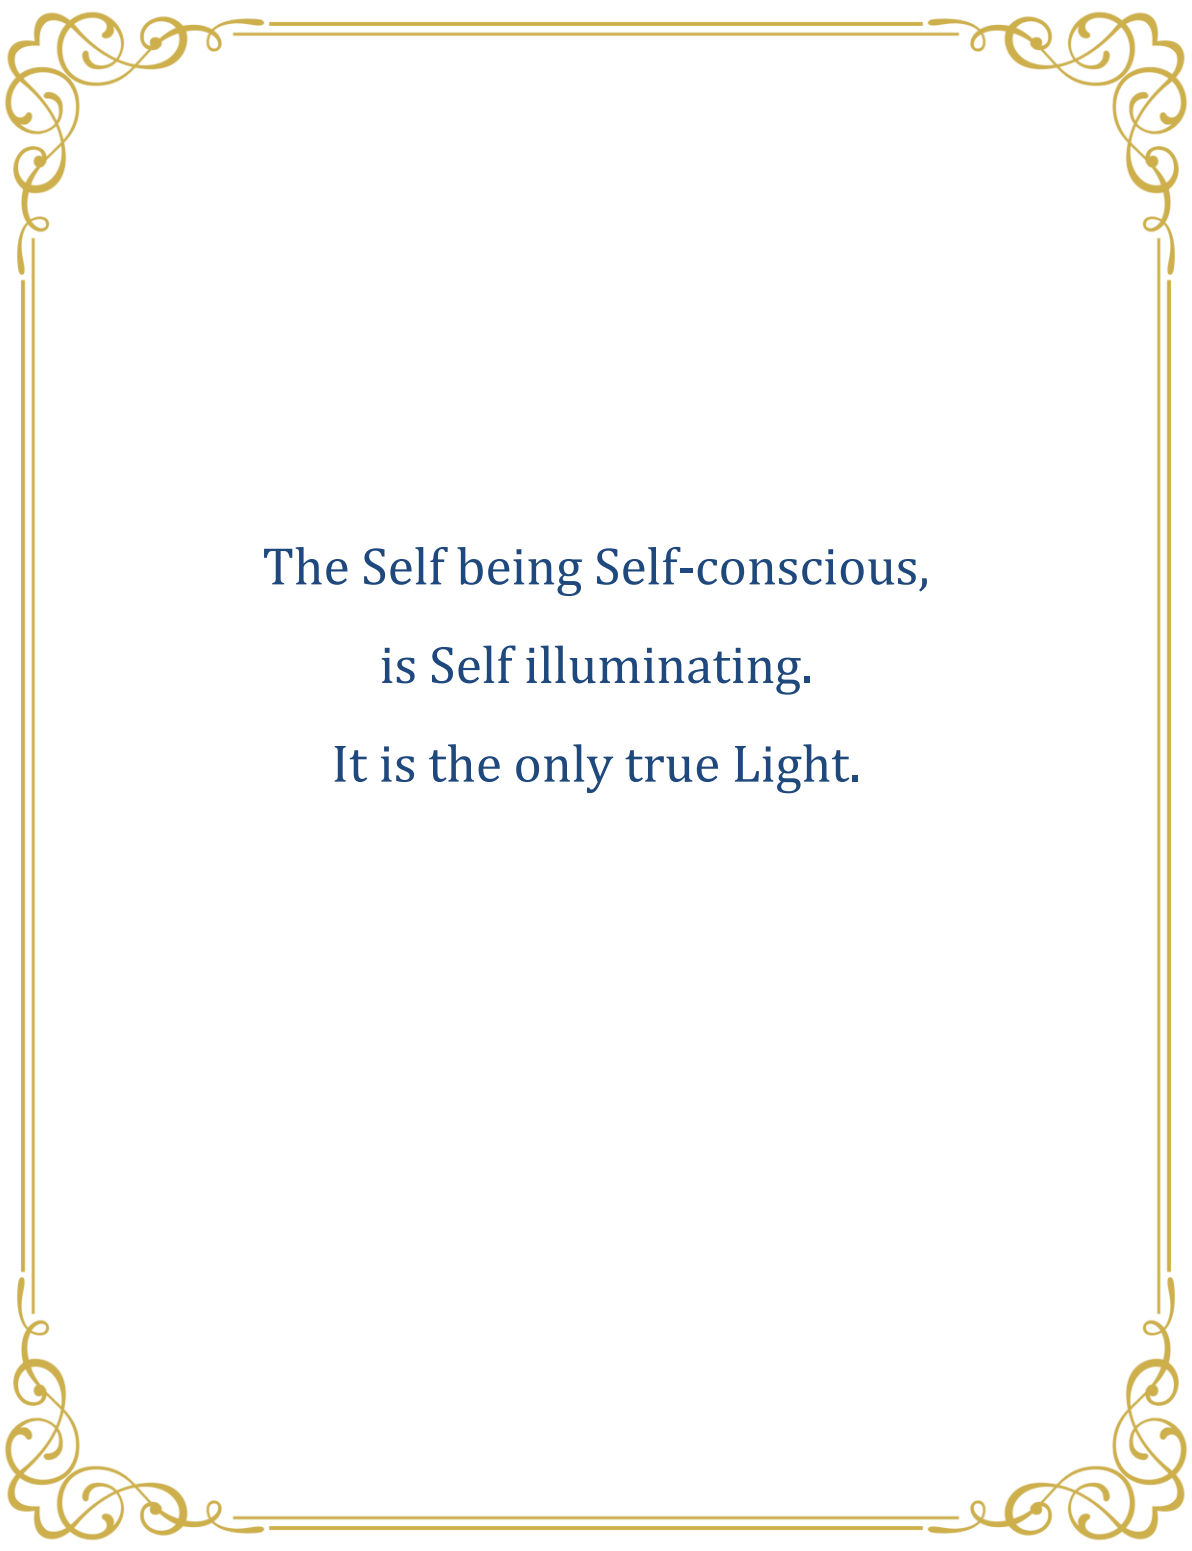

If man can become God
then God can become man.
But God is already man,
man just has to become God.
The job is half done!

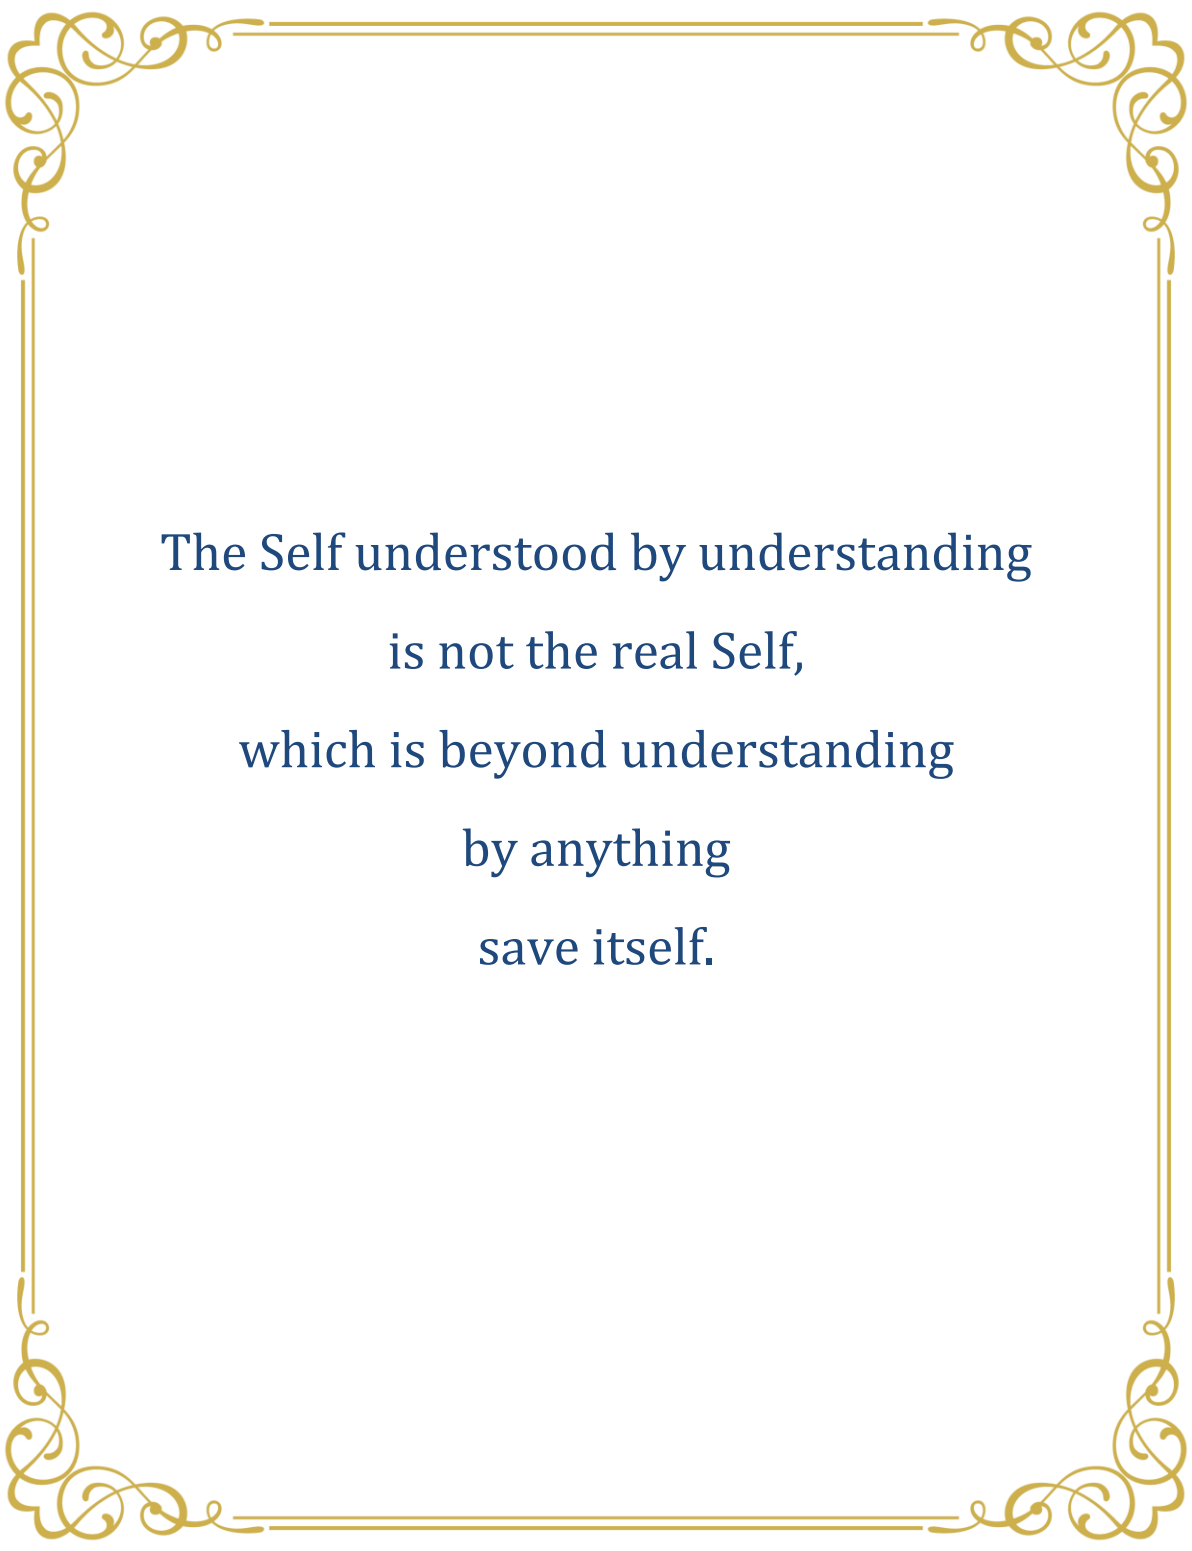

ON THE SELF AND UNDERSTANDING

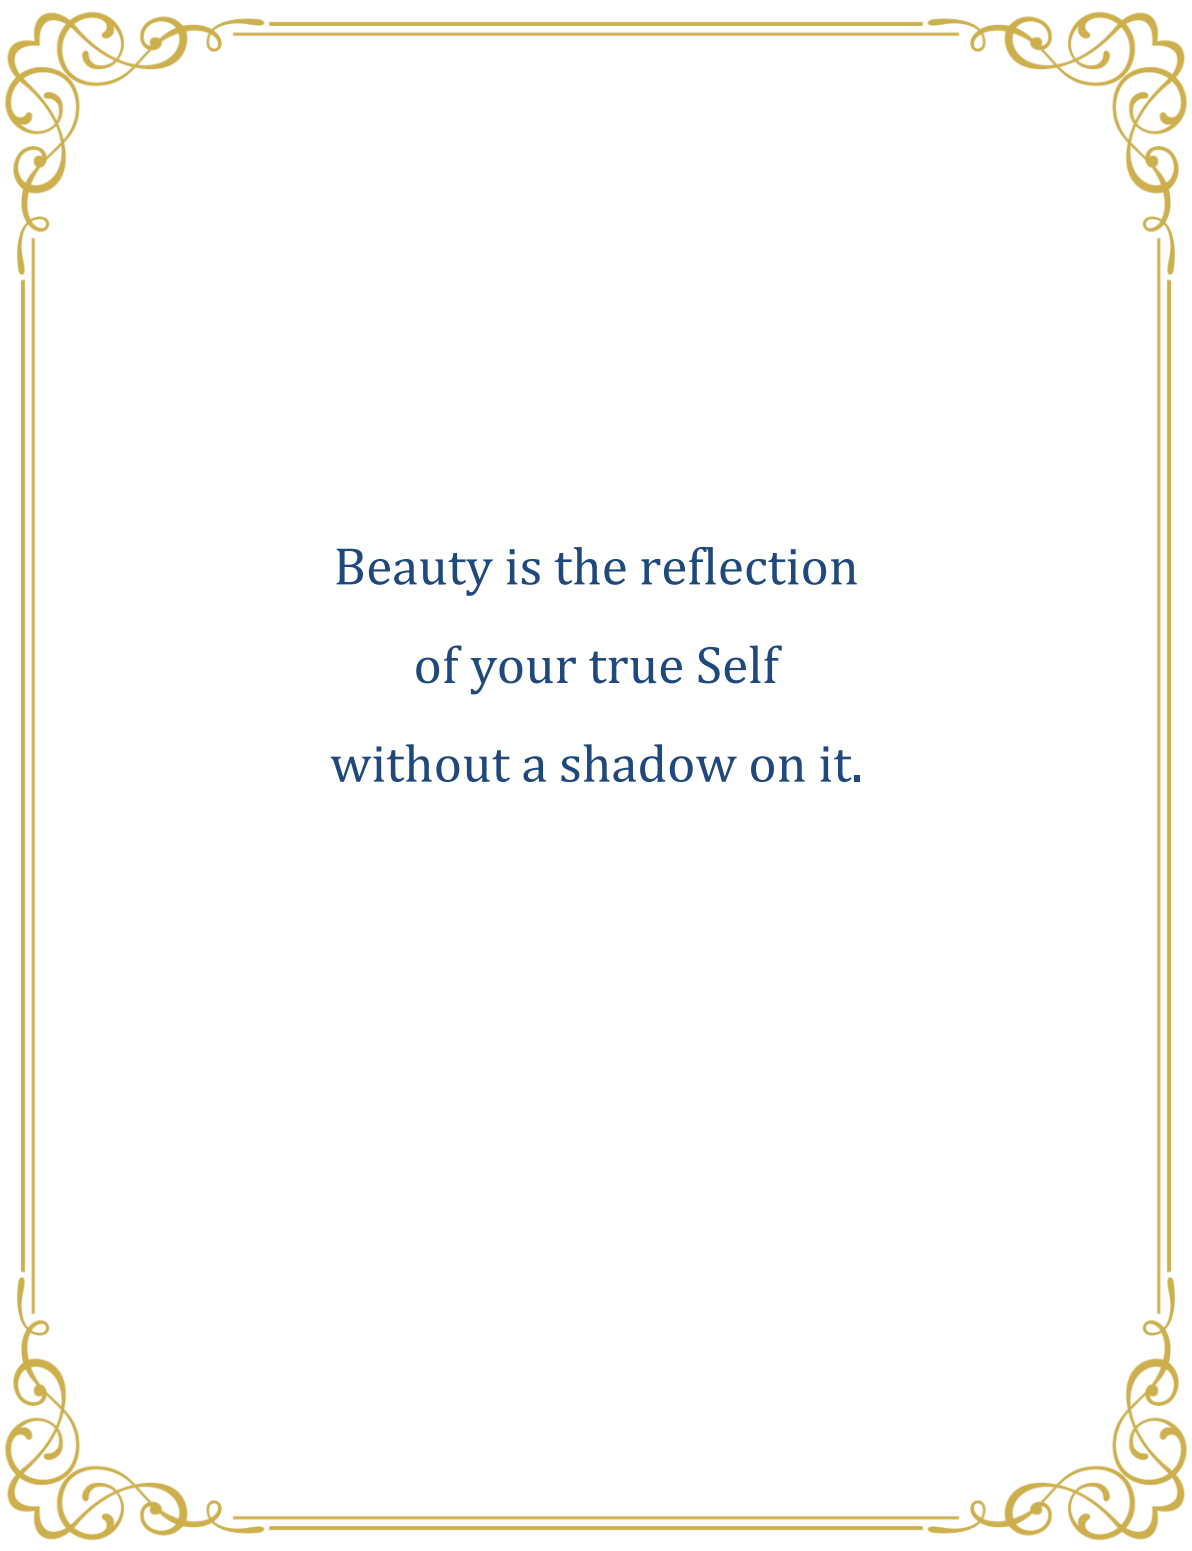

The self can never be
the object of knowledge,
it is the Knower.

The Self being Self-conscious, is Self illuminating.
It is the only true Light.

The Self understood by understanding is not the real Self,
which is beyond understanding by anything
save itself.

Beauty is the reflection of your true Self
without a shadow on it.

The perfect relationship is found only
With the One Self.

Vision is based on separation,
Self is based on Self.

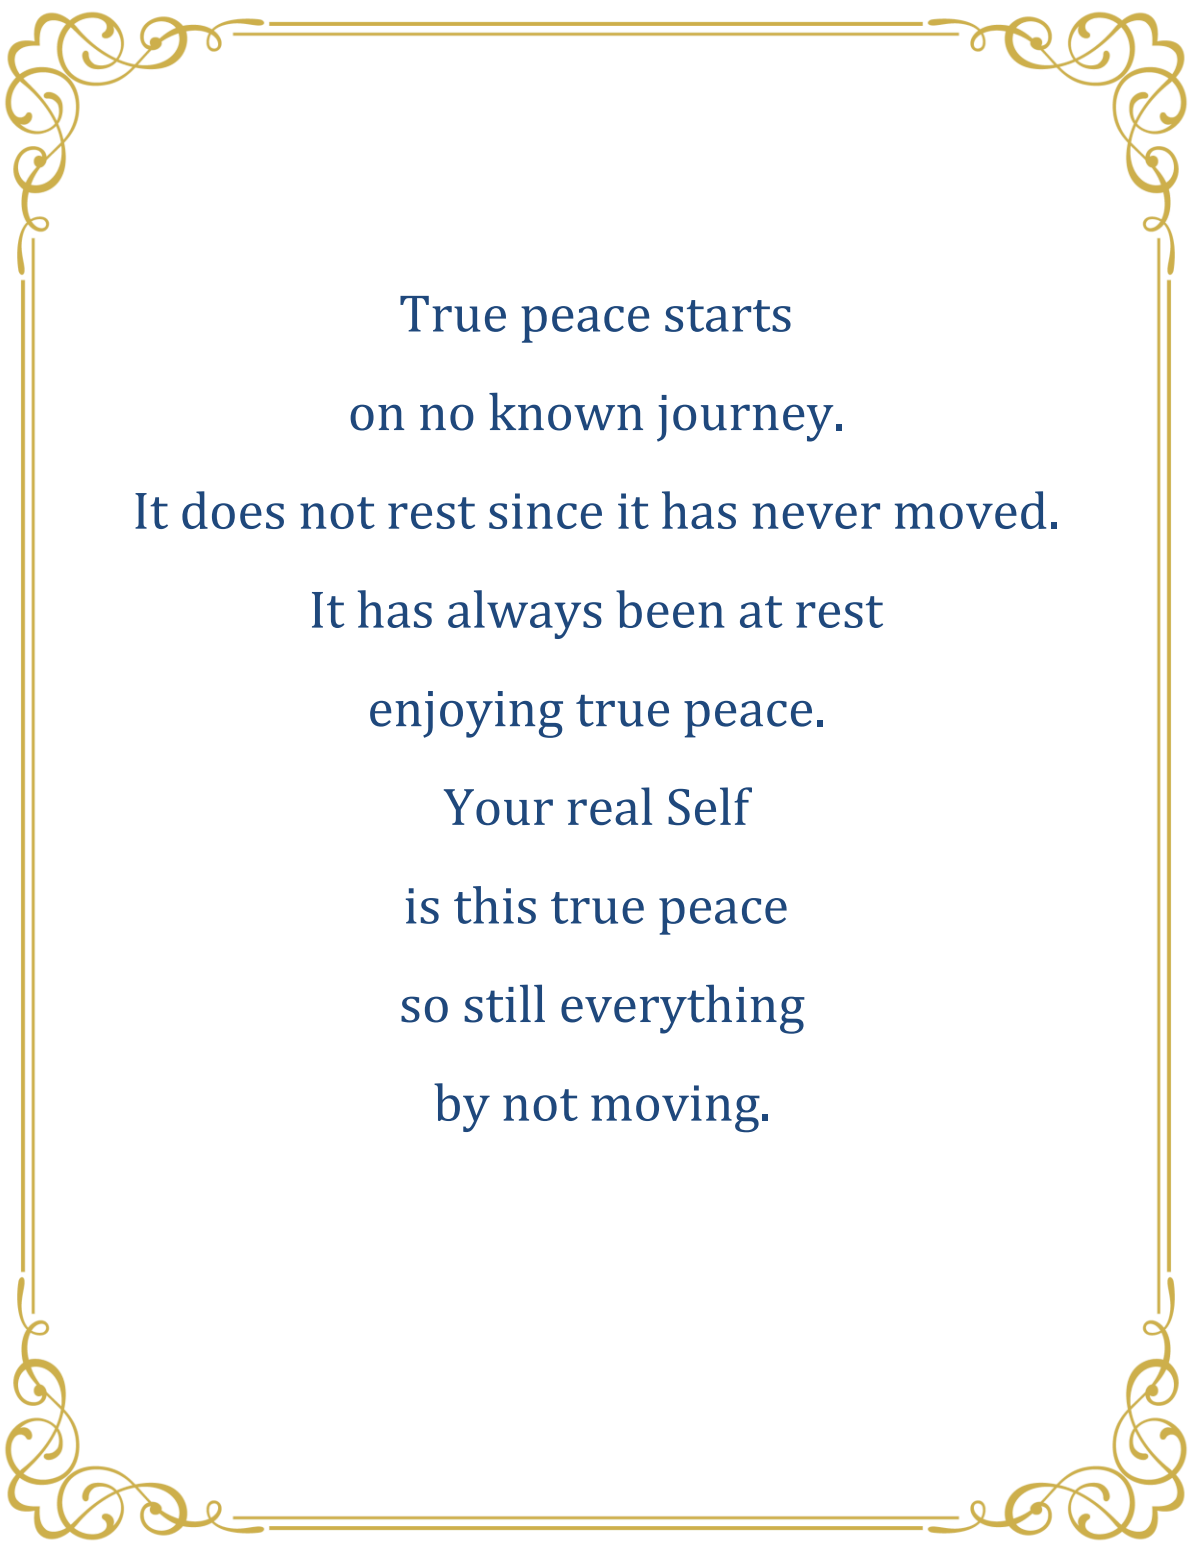

In the everywhere
is the everything
caused by nothing.

But nothing has a cause which is itself.

So as everywhere it cannot be defined.

So be the cause of nothing to be the cause of everything.

True peace starts
on no known journey.
It does not rest since it has never moved.
It has always been at rest enjoying true peace.
Your real Self
is this true peace
so still everything
by not moving.

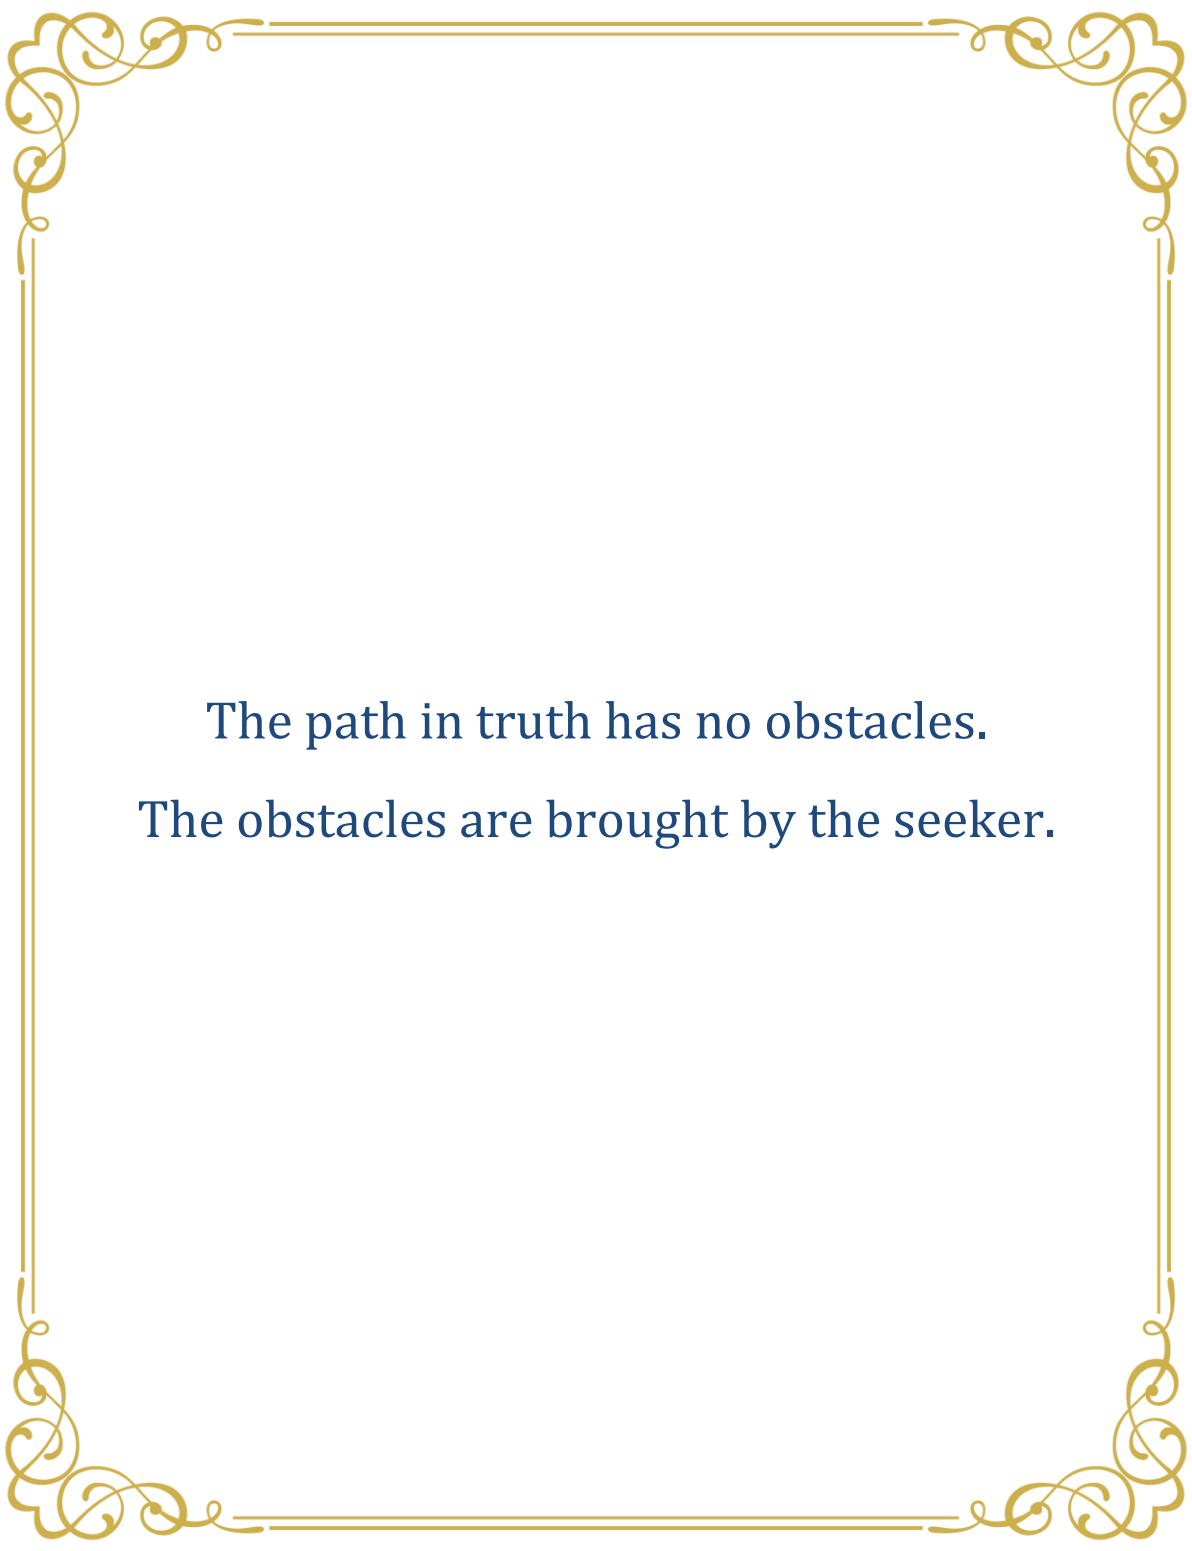

You can be before being;
you cannot be after it.

No one can be faster than that which is everywhere.

ON THE SEARCH

The path in truth has no obstacles.
The obstacles are brought by the seeker.

Creation cannot ask the question.
God does not need the answer.
In between is what's called evolution.

All identity with seeking
is not truth,
but the endless rhythm
of knowing,
which eternally seeks itself and therefore never finding itself
never rests.

Man is elevated
by the mystery of God,
not the logic of creation.

Tread the Path
and you will always be on it.
Become the Path
and you will never be on it.

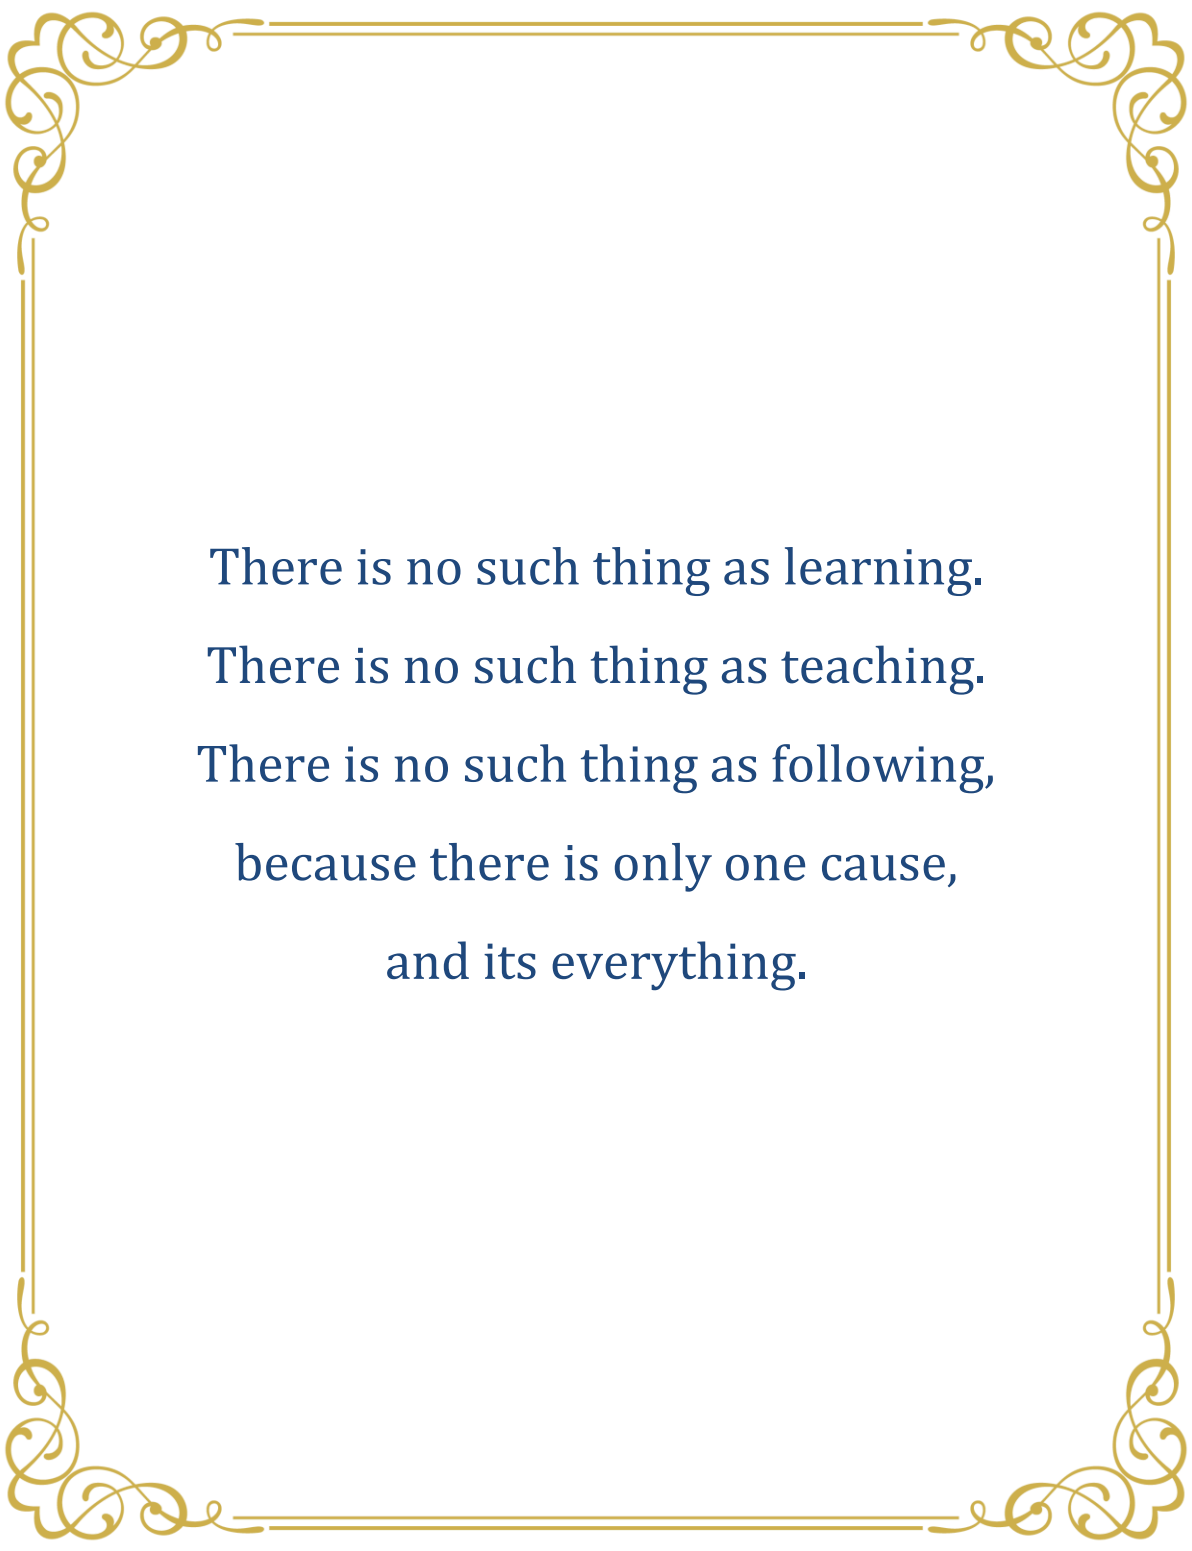

Ceaseless requirements,
ceaseless bondage.

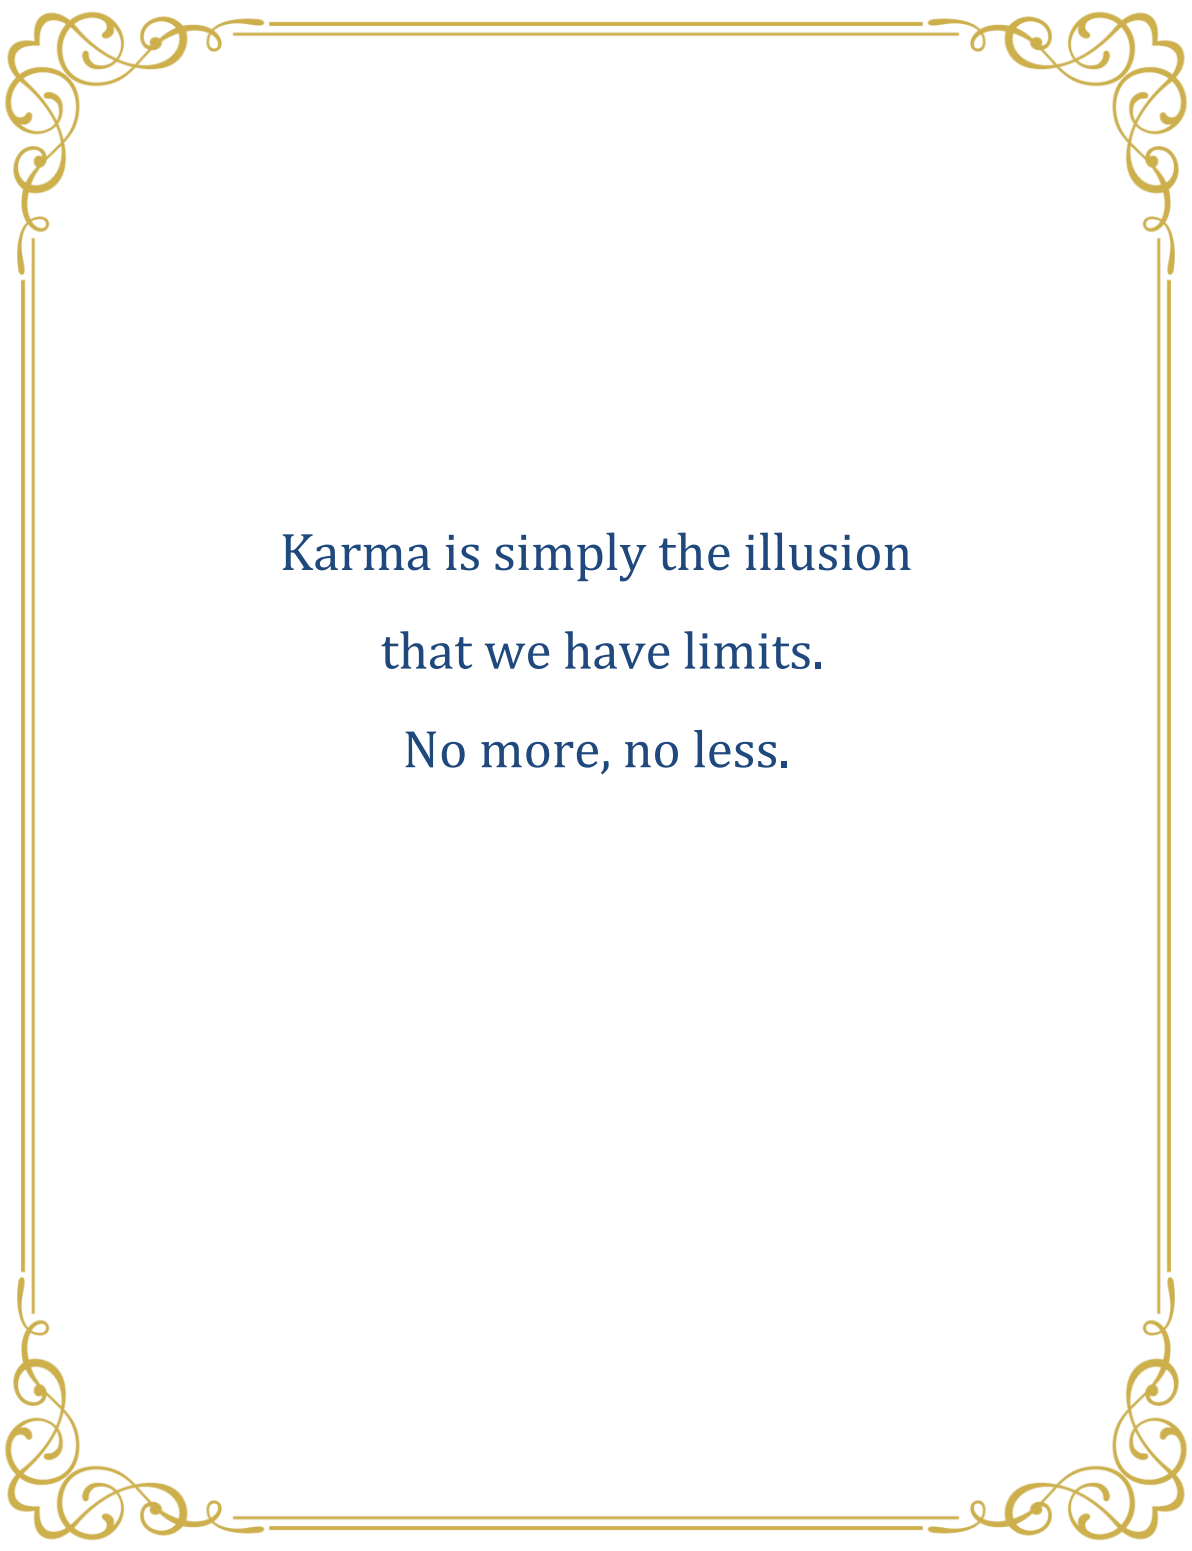

Striving upwards is rebellion.

Striving inwards is devotion.

Non striving is Enlightenment.

There is no such thing as learning.
There is no such thing as teaching.
There is no such thing as following,
because there is only one cause,
and its everything.

Karma is simply the illusion that we have limits.
No more, no less.

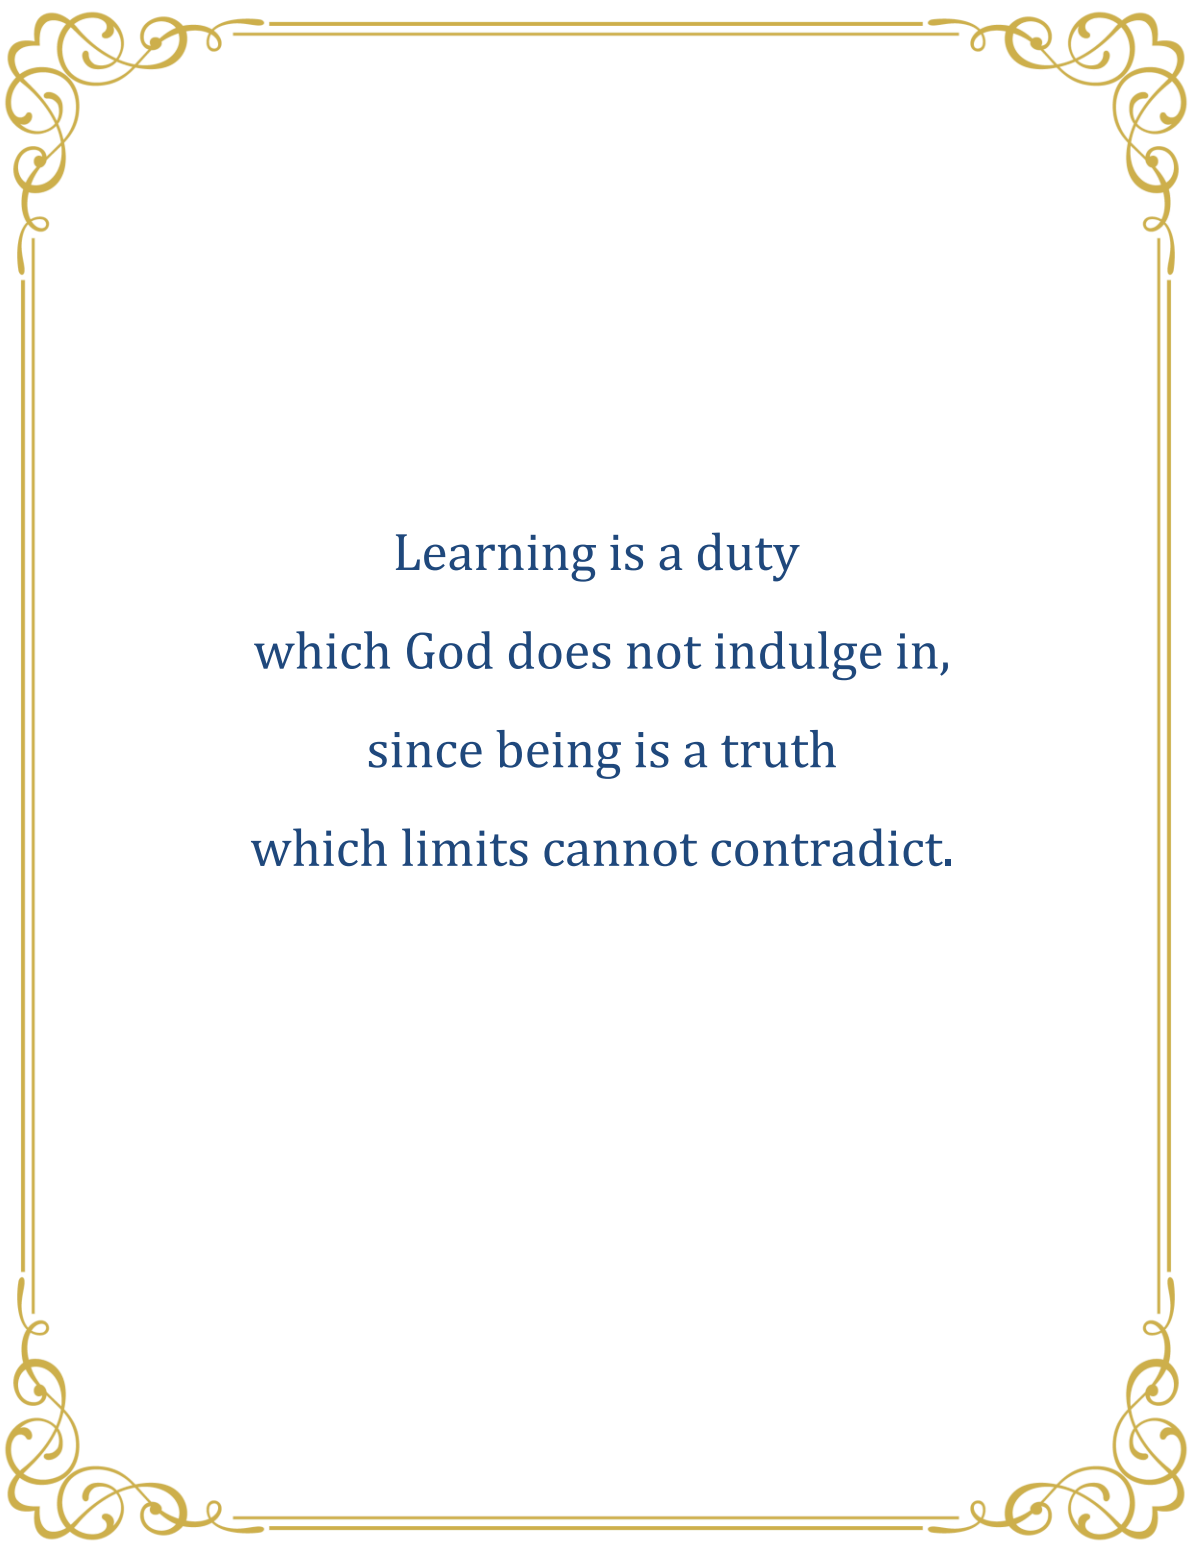

Emptiness is a state
where nothing hides,
yet nothing is always found.

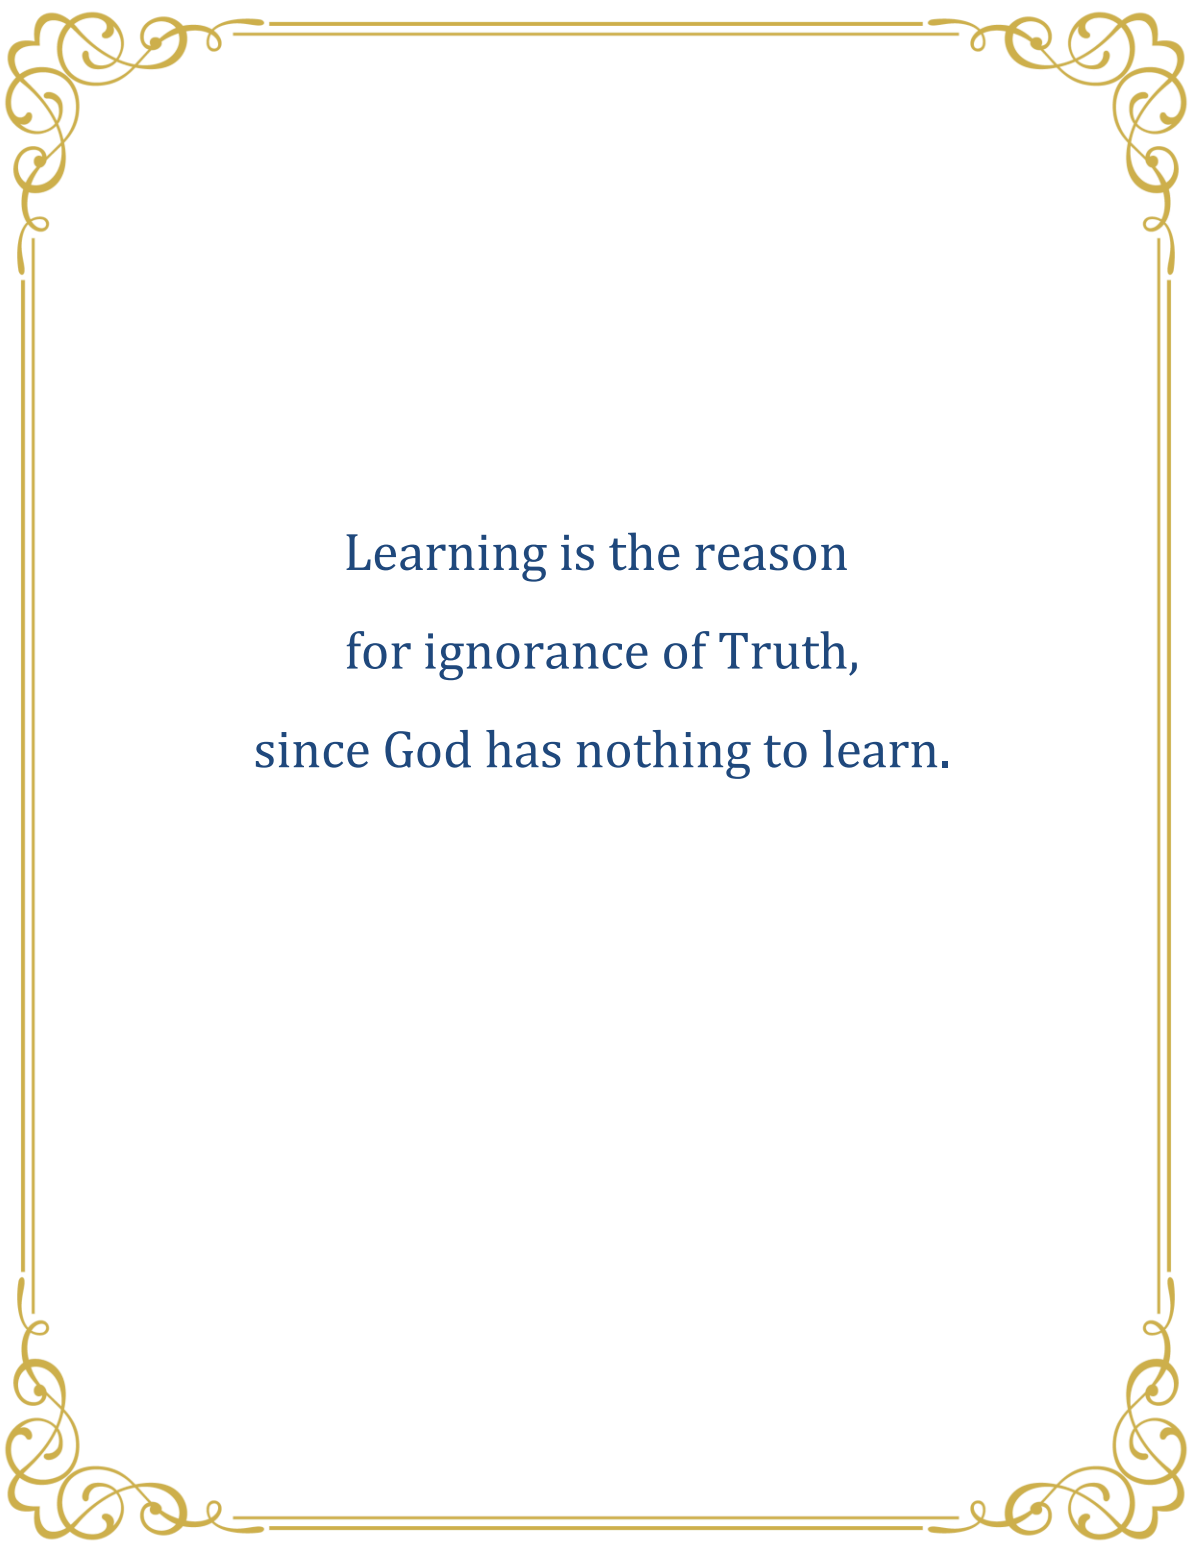

ON LEARNING

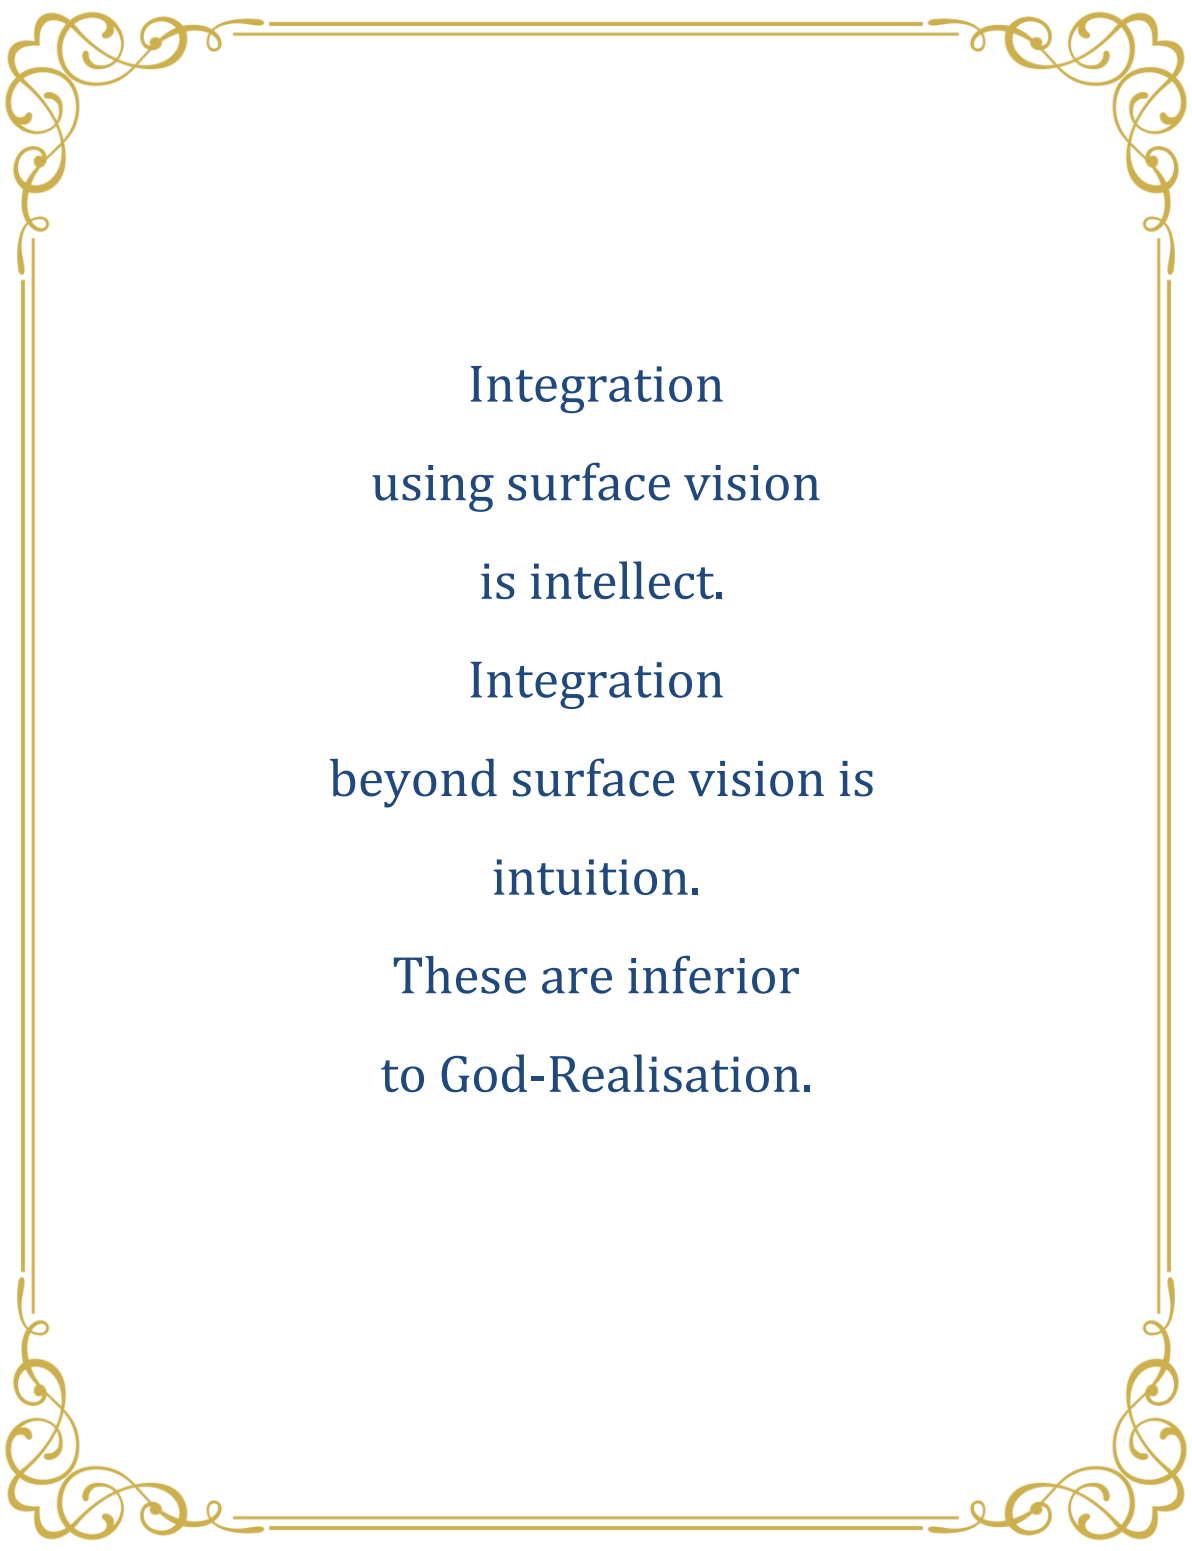

Learning is a requirement.
God has no requirements.

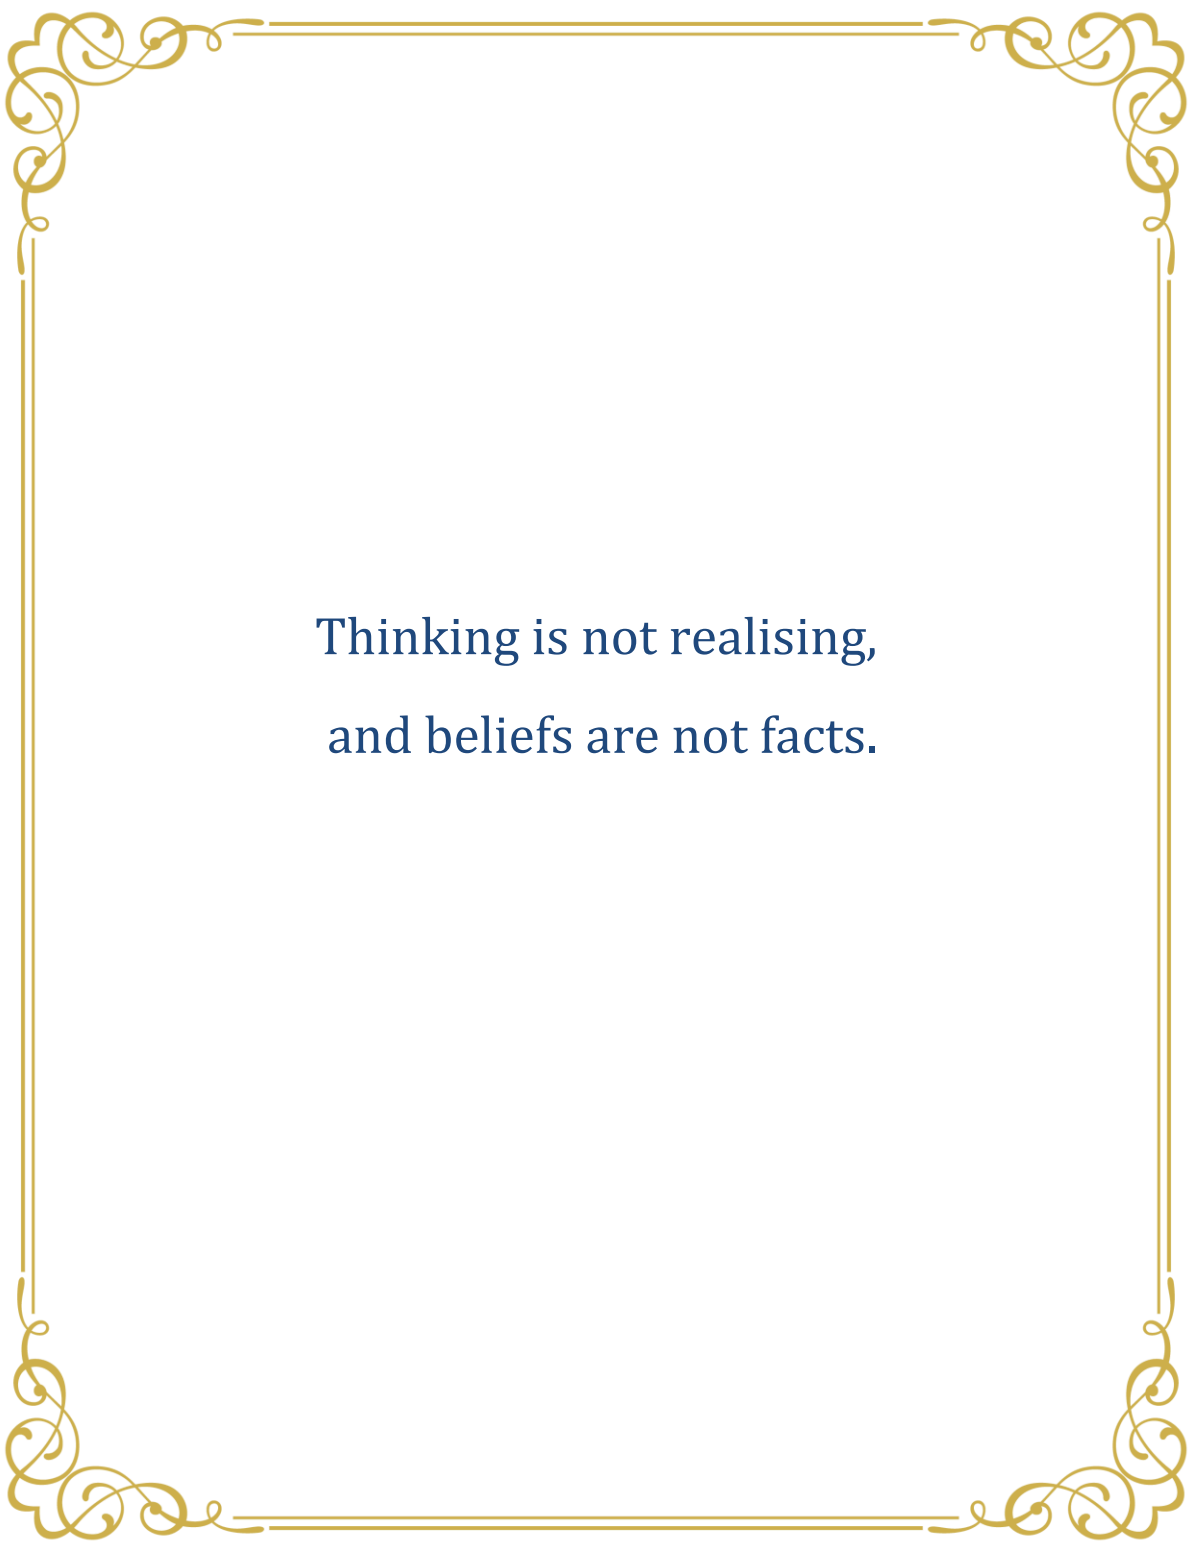

Learning is a duty
which God does not indulge in,
since being is a truth
which limits cannot contradict.

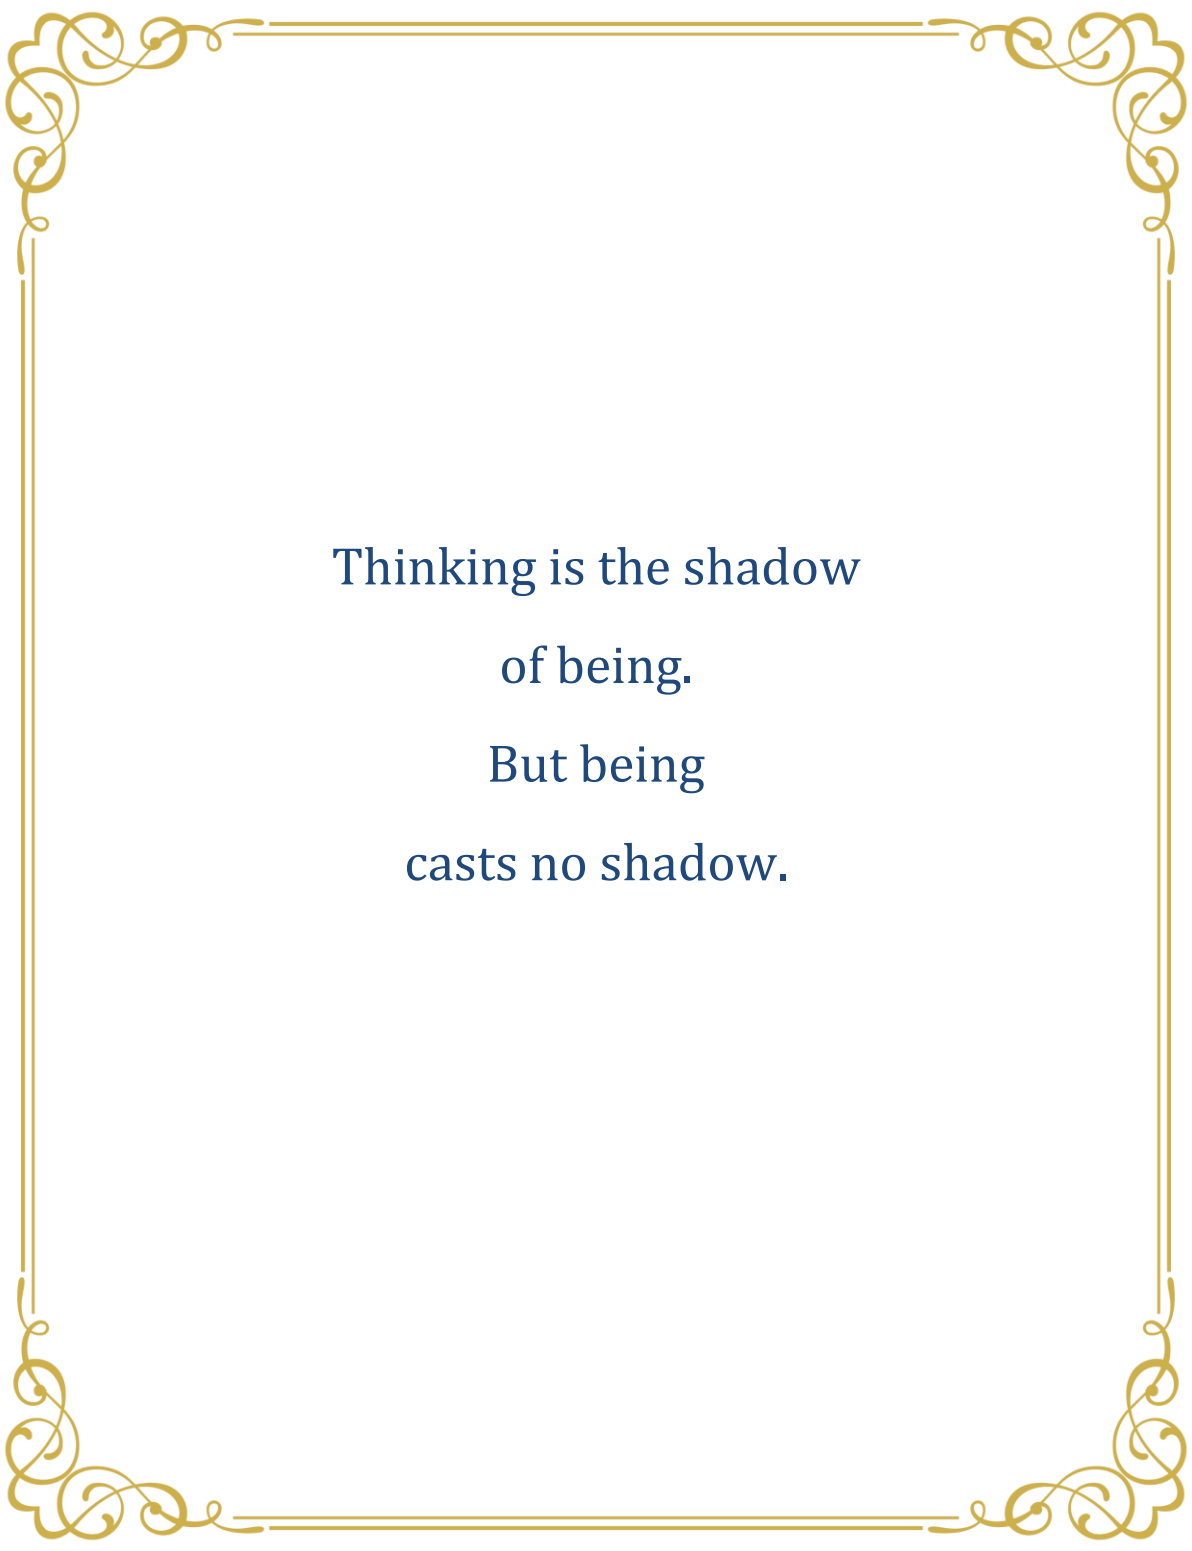

Learning is the reason
for ignorance of Truth,
since God has nothing to learn.

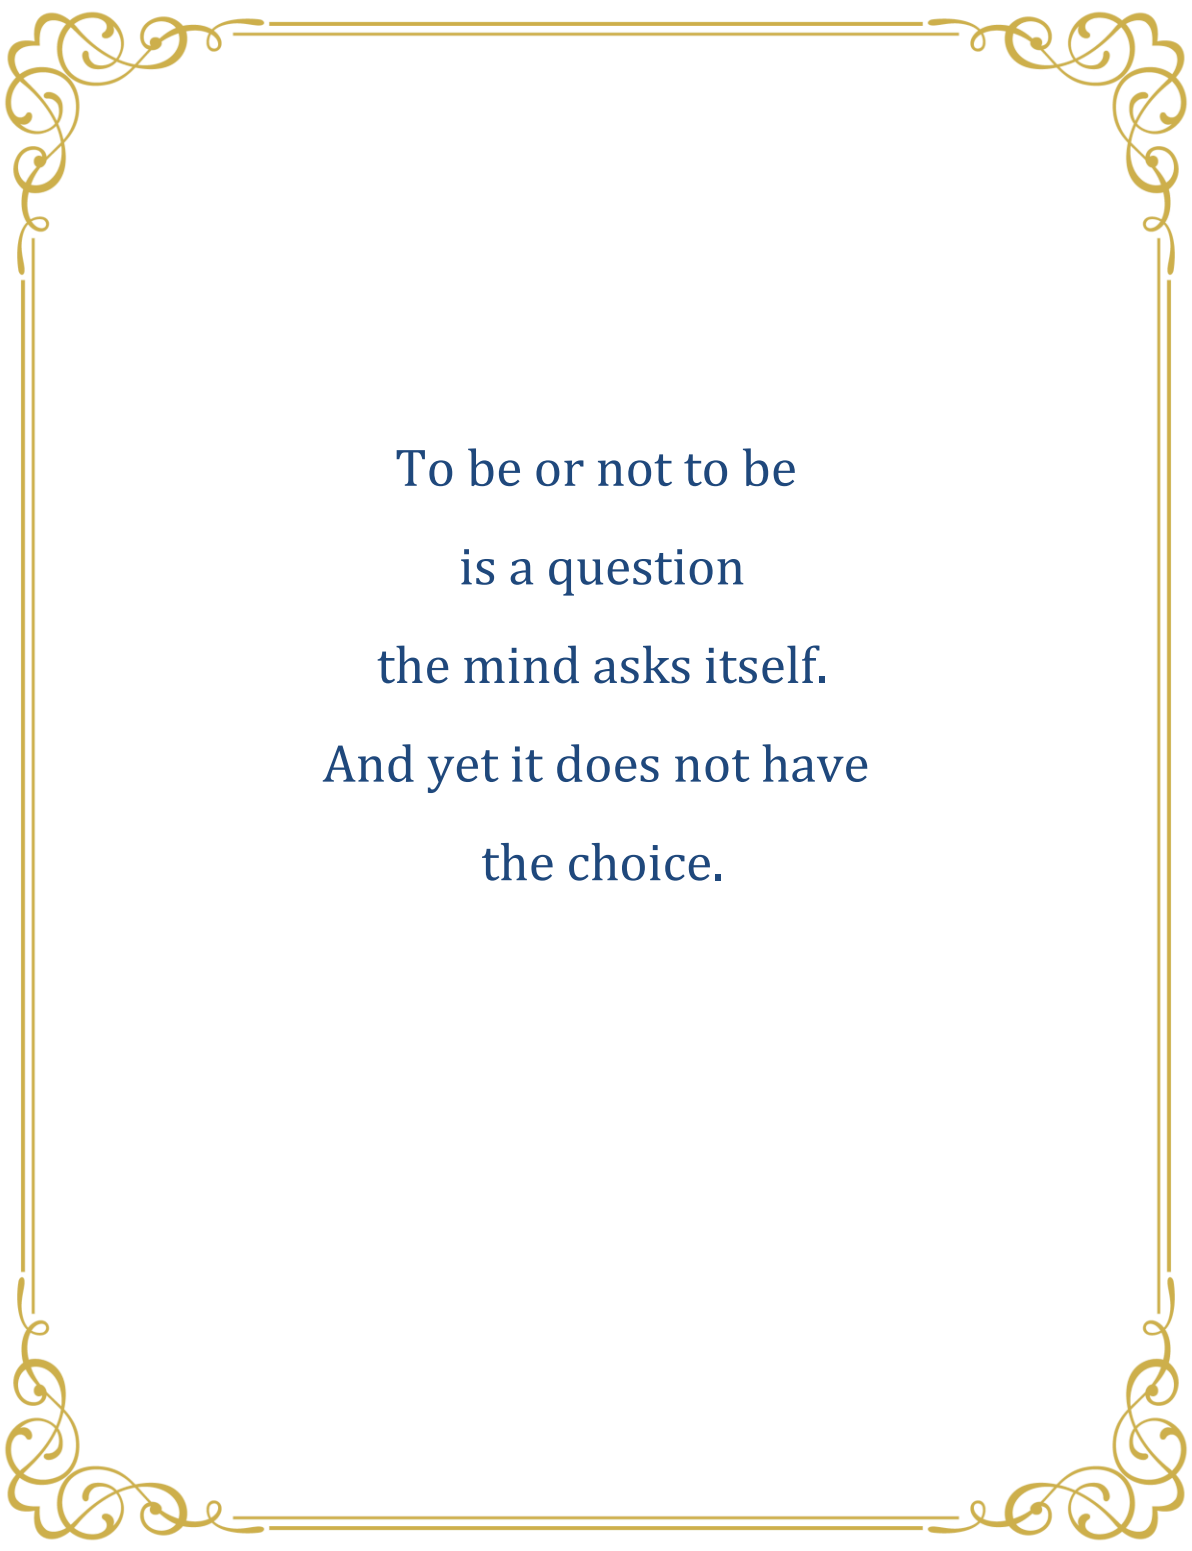

Integration
using surface vision
is intellect.
Integration
beyond surface vision is intuition.
These are inferior
to God-Realisation.

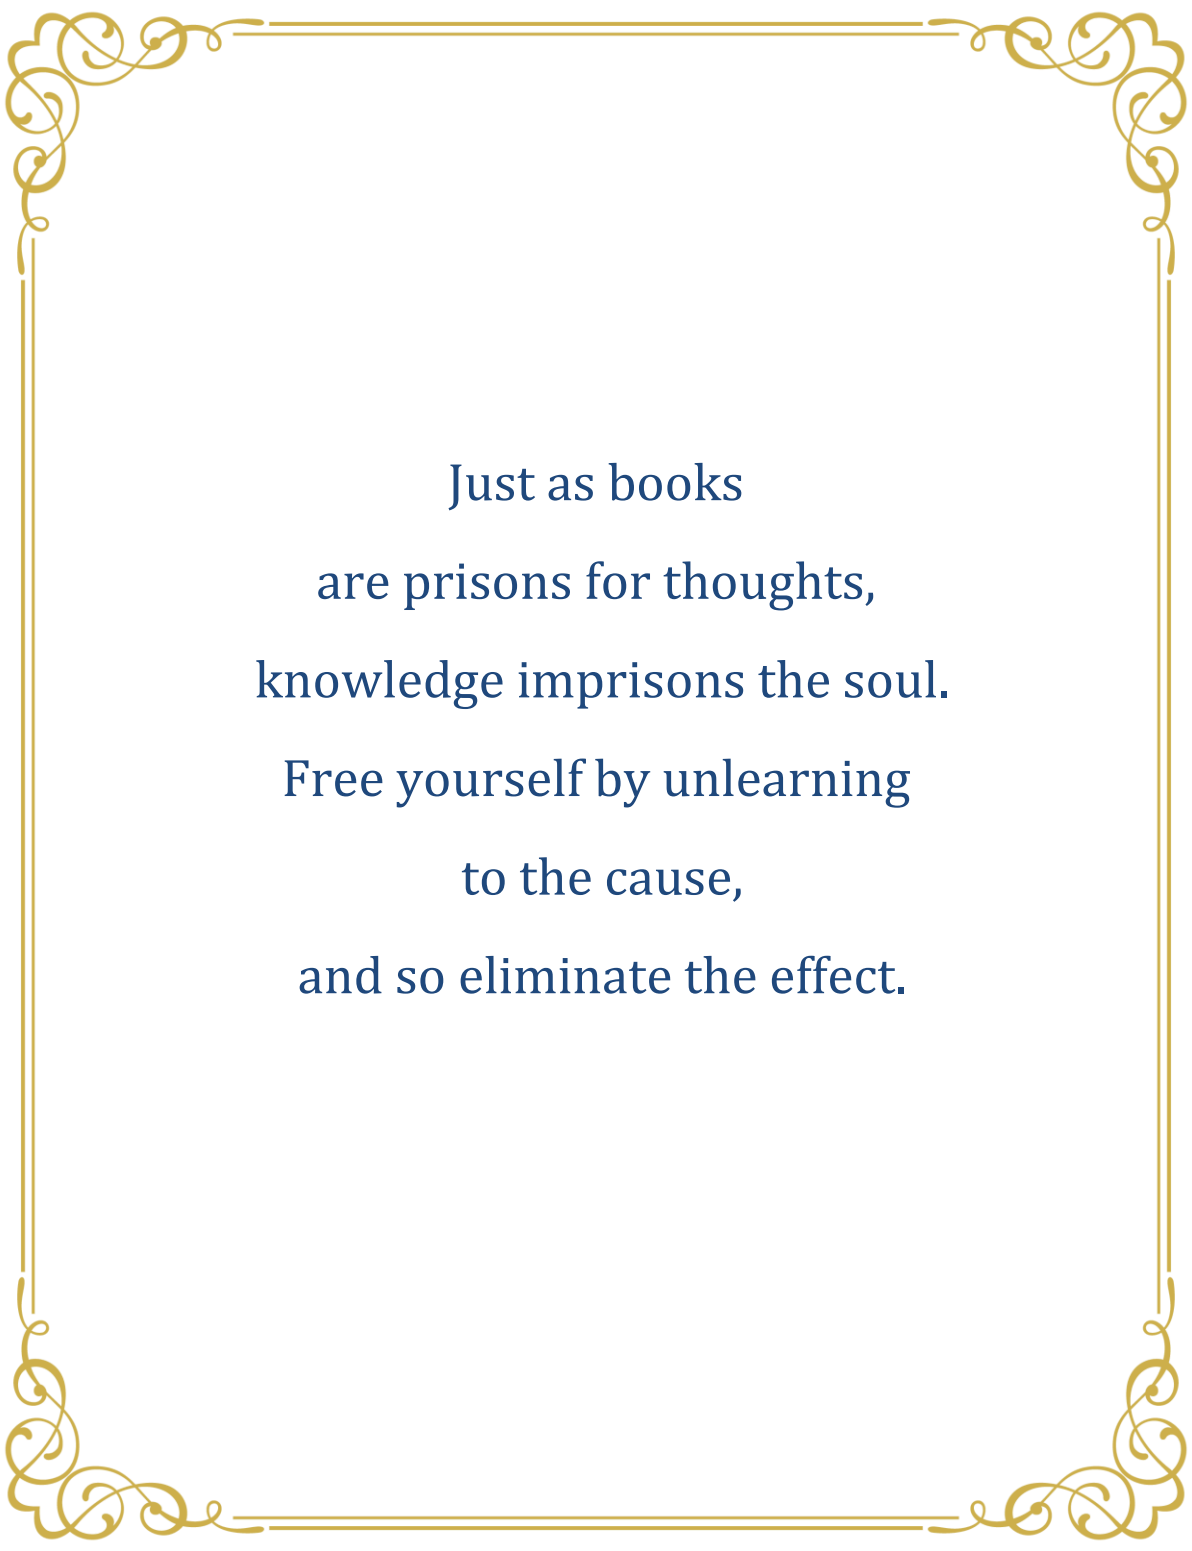

Thinking is not realising,
and beliefs are not facts.

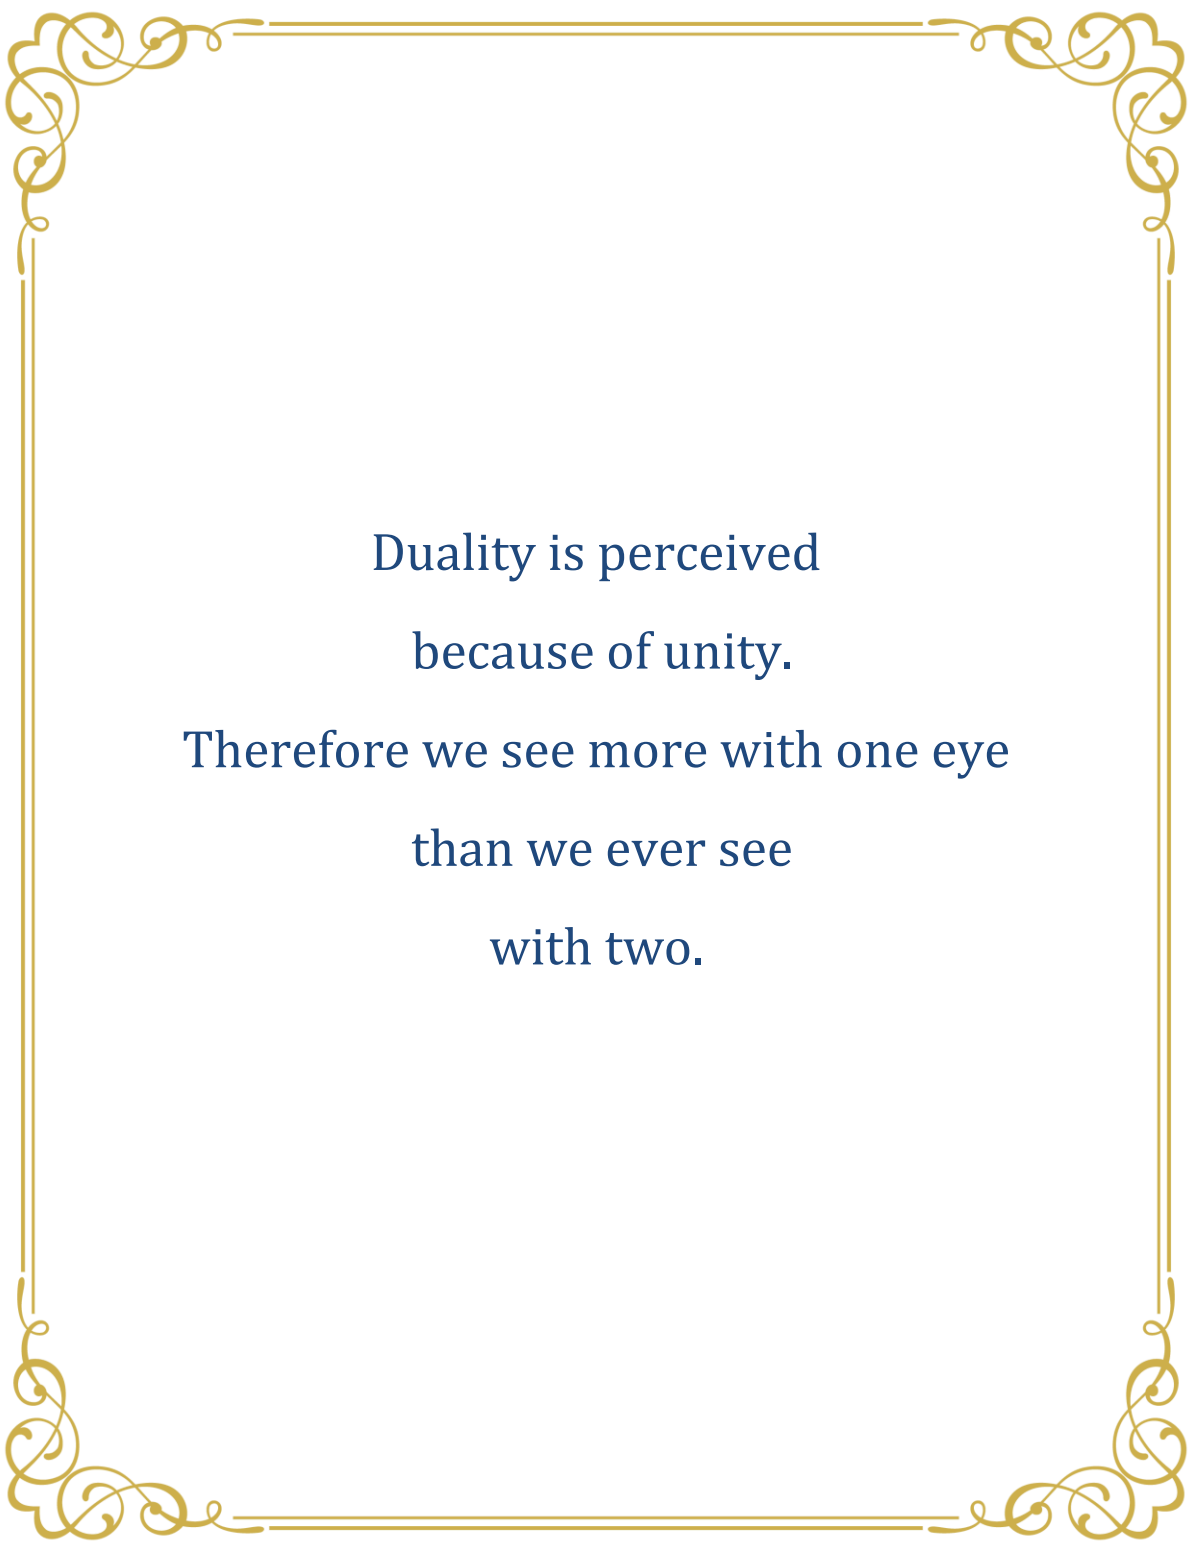

Thinking is the shadow
of being.
But being
casts no shadow.

To be or not to be
is a question
the mind asks itself.
And yet it does not have the choice.

Just as books
are prisons for thoughts, knowledge imprisons the soul.
Free yourself by unlearning
to the cause,
and so eliminate the effect.

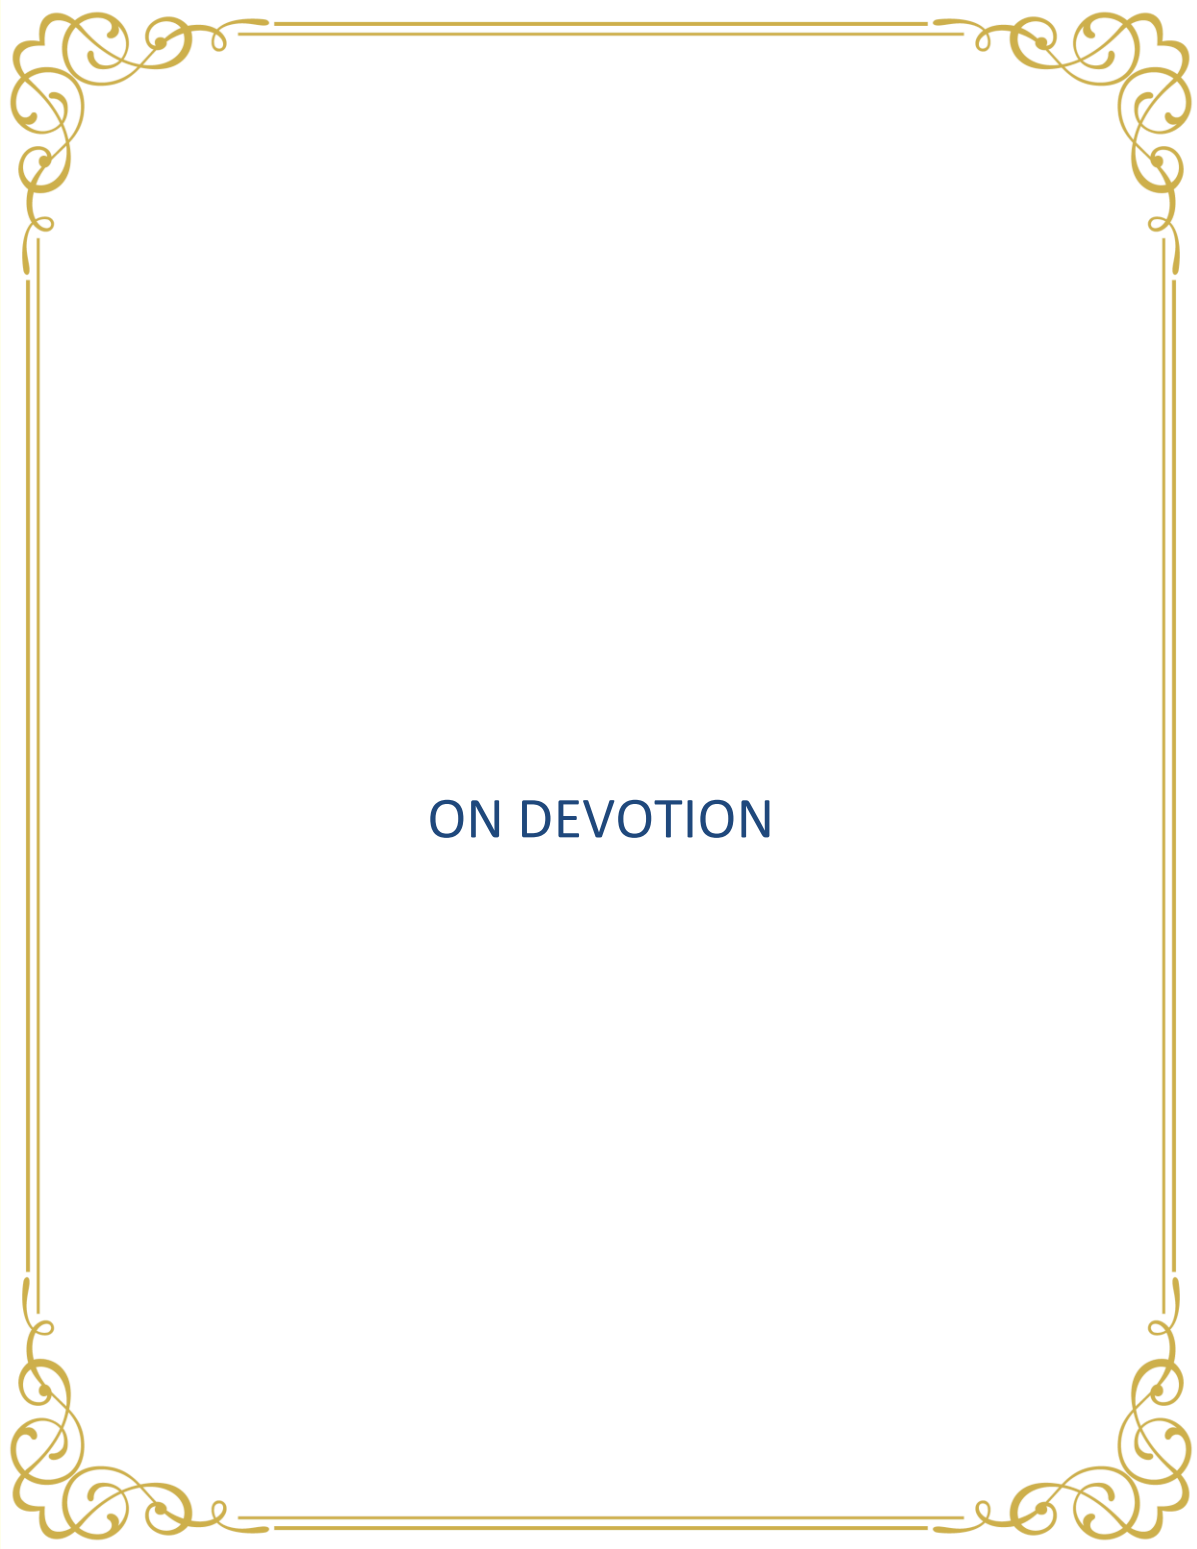

Duality is perceived
because of unity.

Therefore we see more with one eye than we ever see with two.

Blessed is he
who teaches nothing,
and whom nothing
teaches.

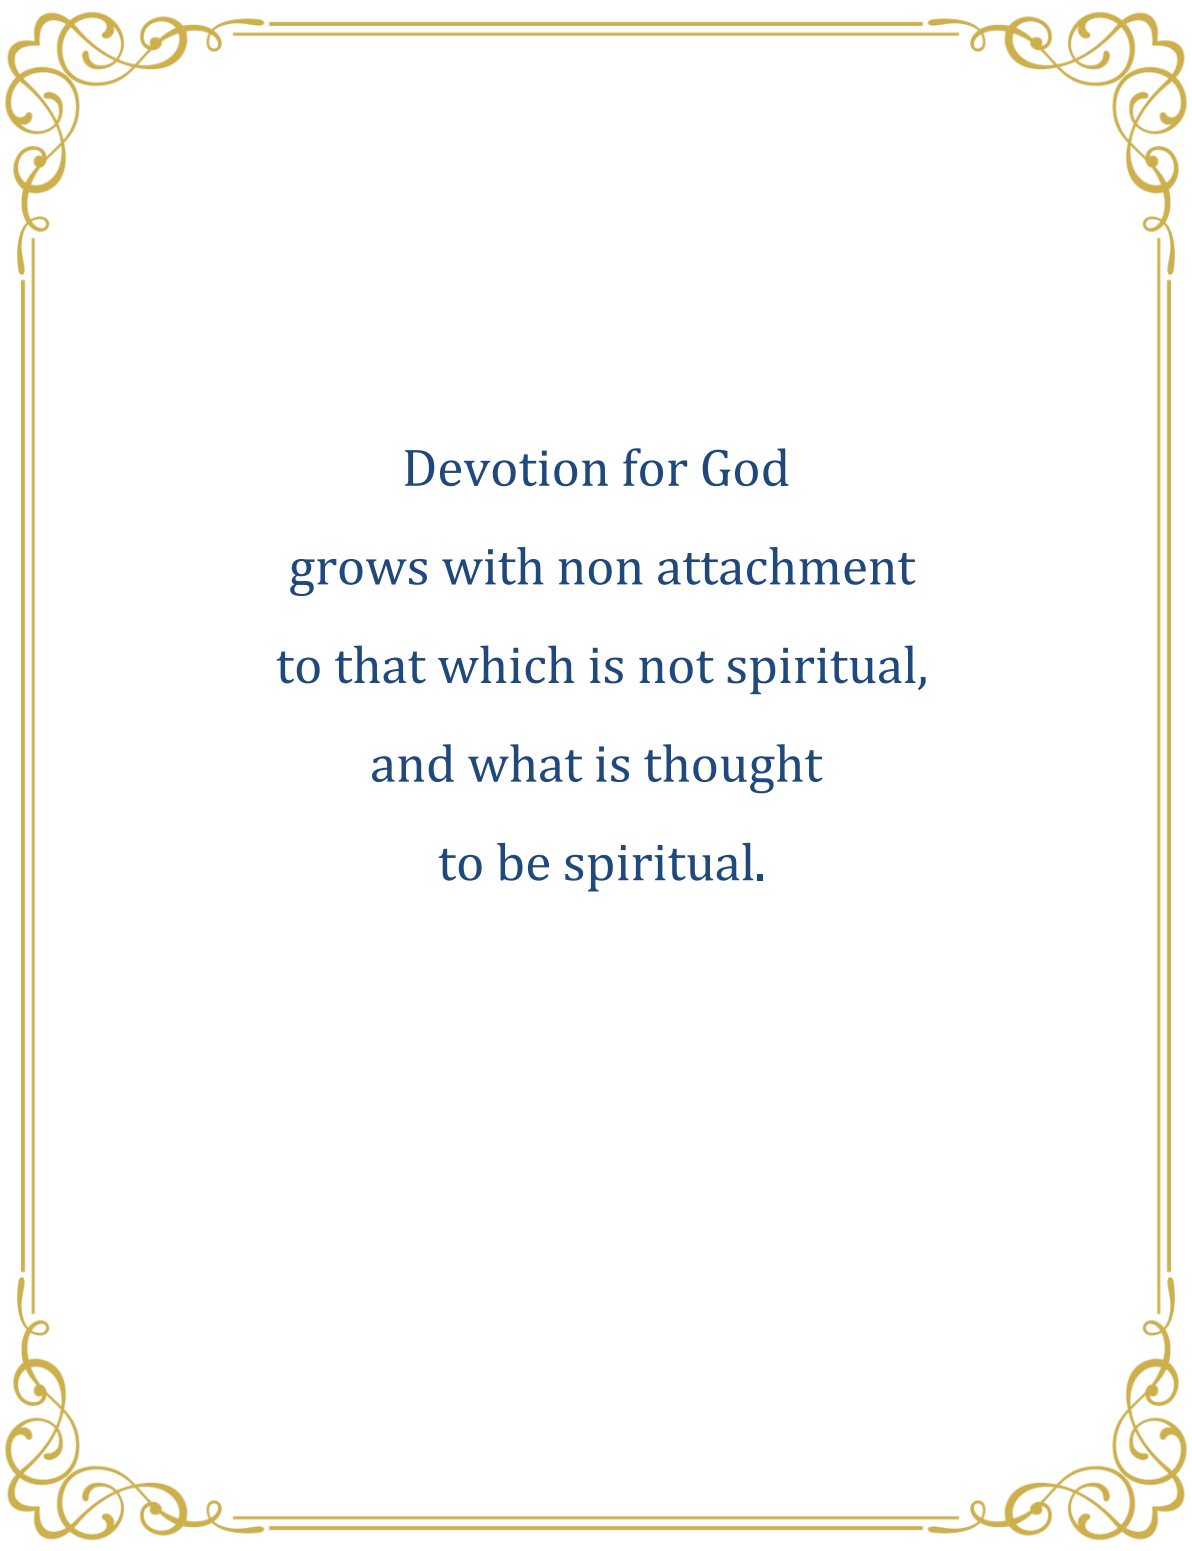

ON DEVOTION

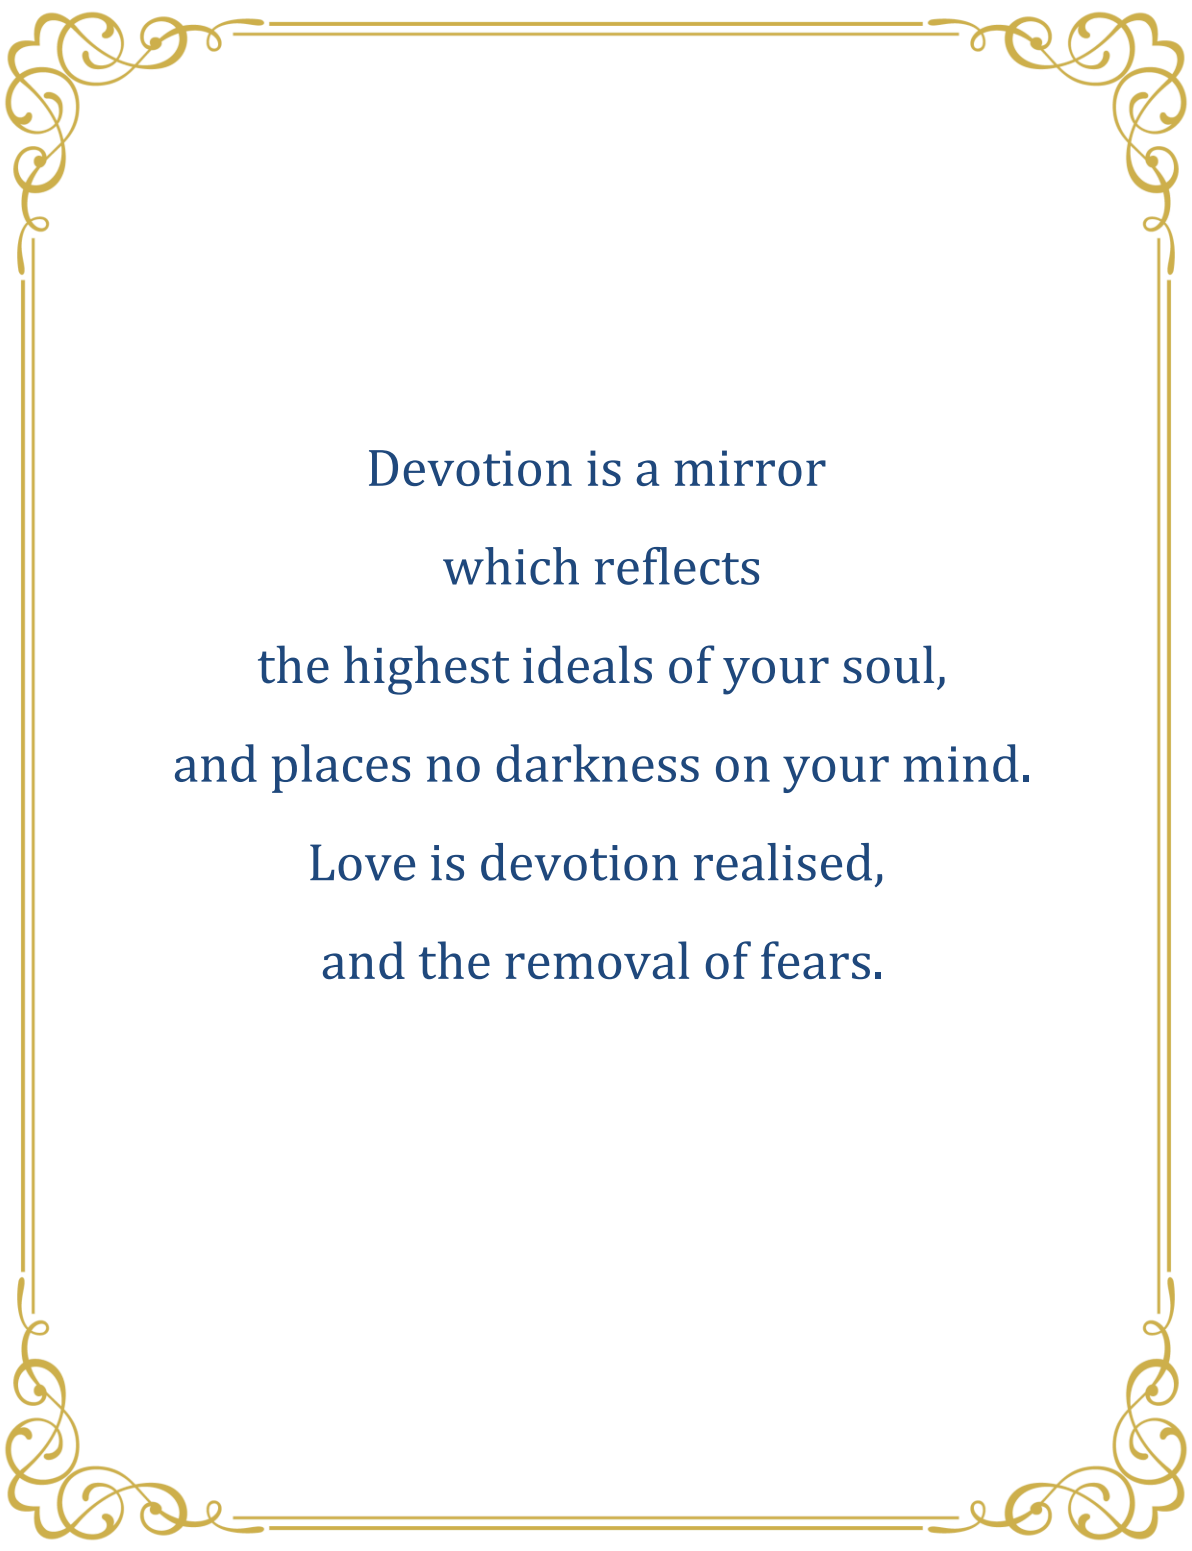

Devotion
is the only true practice of Love.

Devotion is the key.
Humility is the door.
The Master is the way.

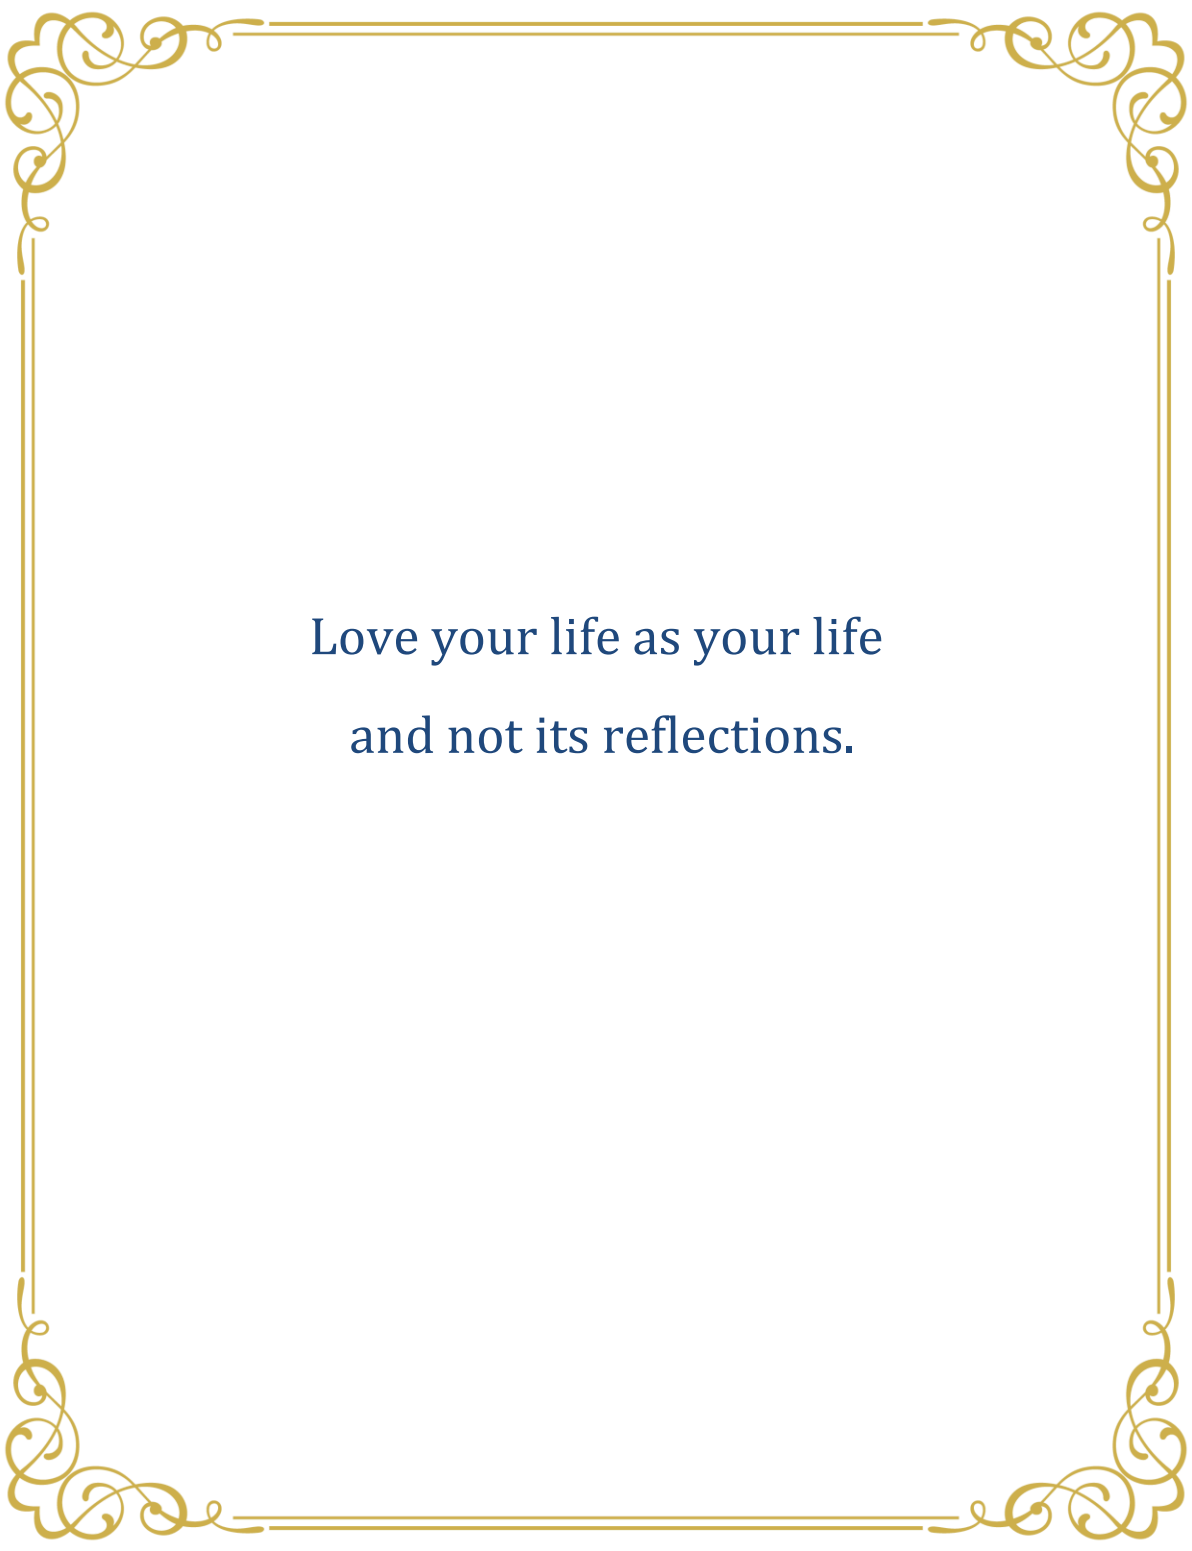

Devotion for God
grows with non attachment to that which is not spiritual, and what is thought to be spiritual.

Devotion is a mirror
which reflects
the highest ideals of your soul,
and places no darkness on your mind.
Love is devotion realised,
and the removal of fears.

When our heart develops to the fullest
we will find
that we are God.

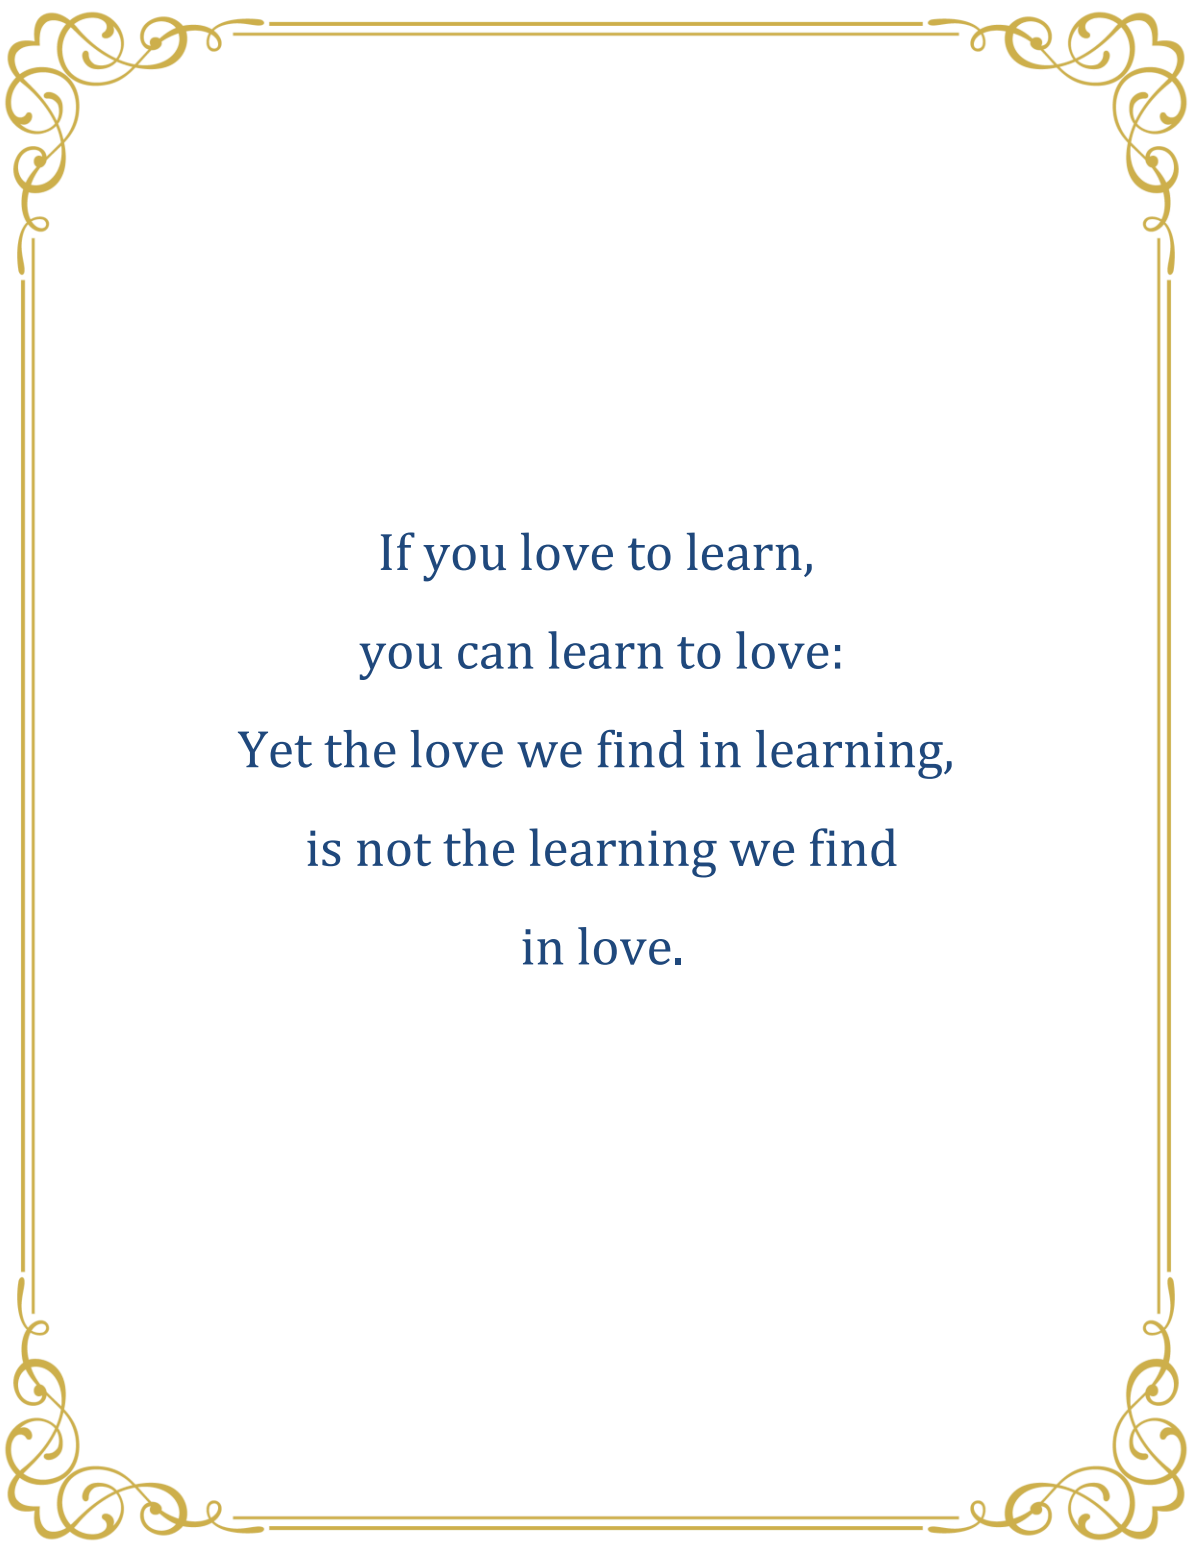

Love your life as your life
and not its reflections.

Love is sought by those who have not got it
and yet you only seek that which you already have.

Love becomes a tradition
if one chooses to imprison
in forms,
the joy we can find
in being.

If you love to learn,
you can learn to love:
Yet the love we find in learning, is not the learning we find in love.

True service to God
is the finding of Truth in every action.

But God is actionless.

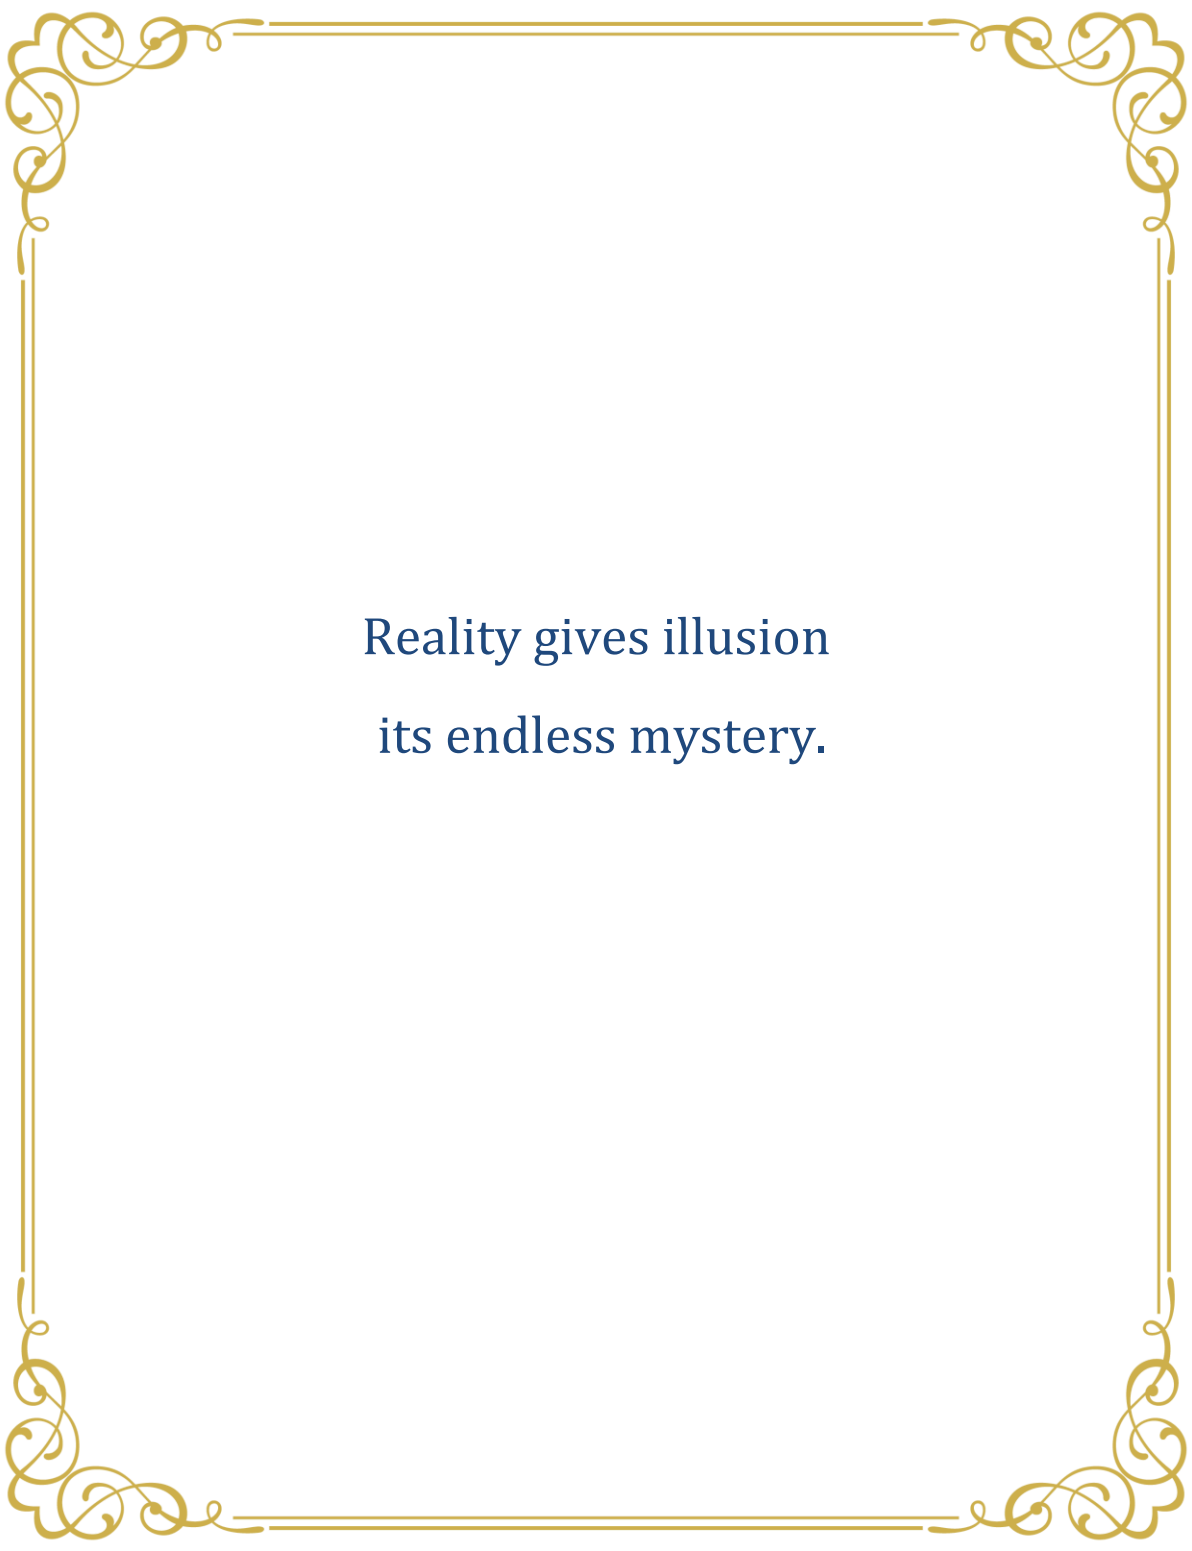

So true service
is doing everything,
by doing nothing,
with an action
which is everywhere.

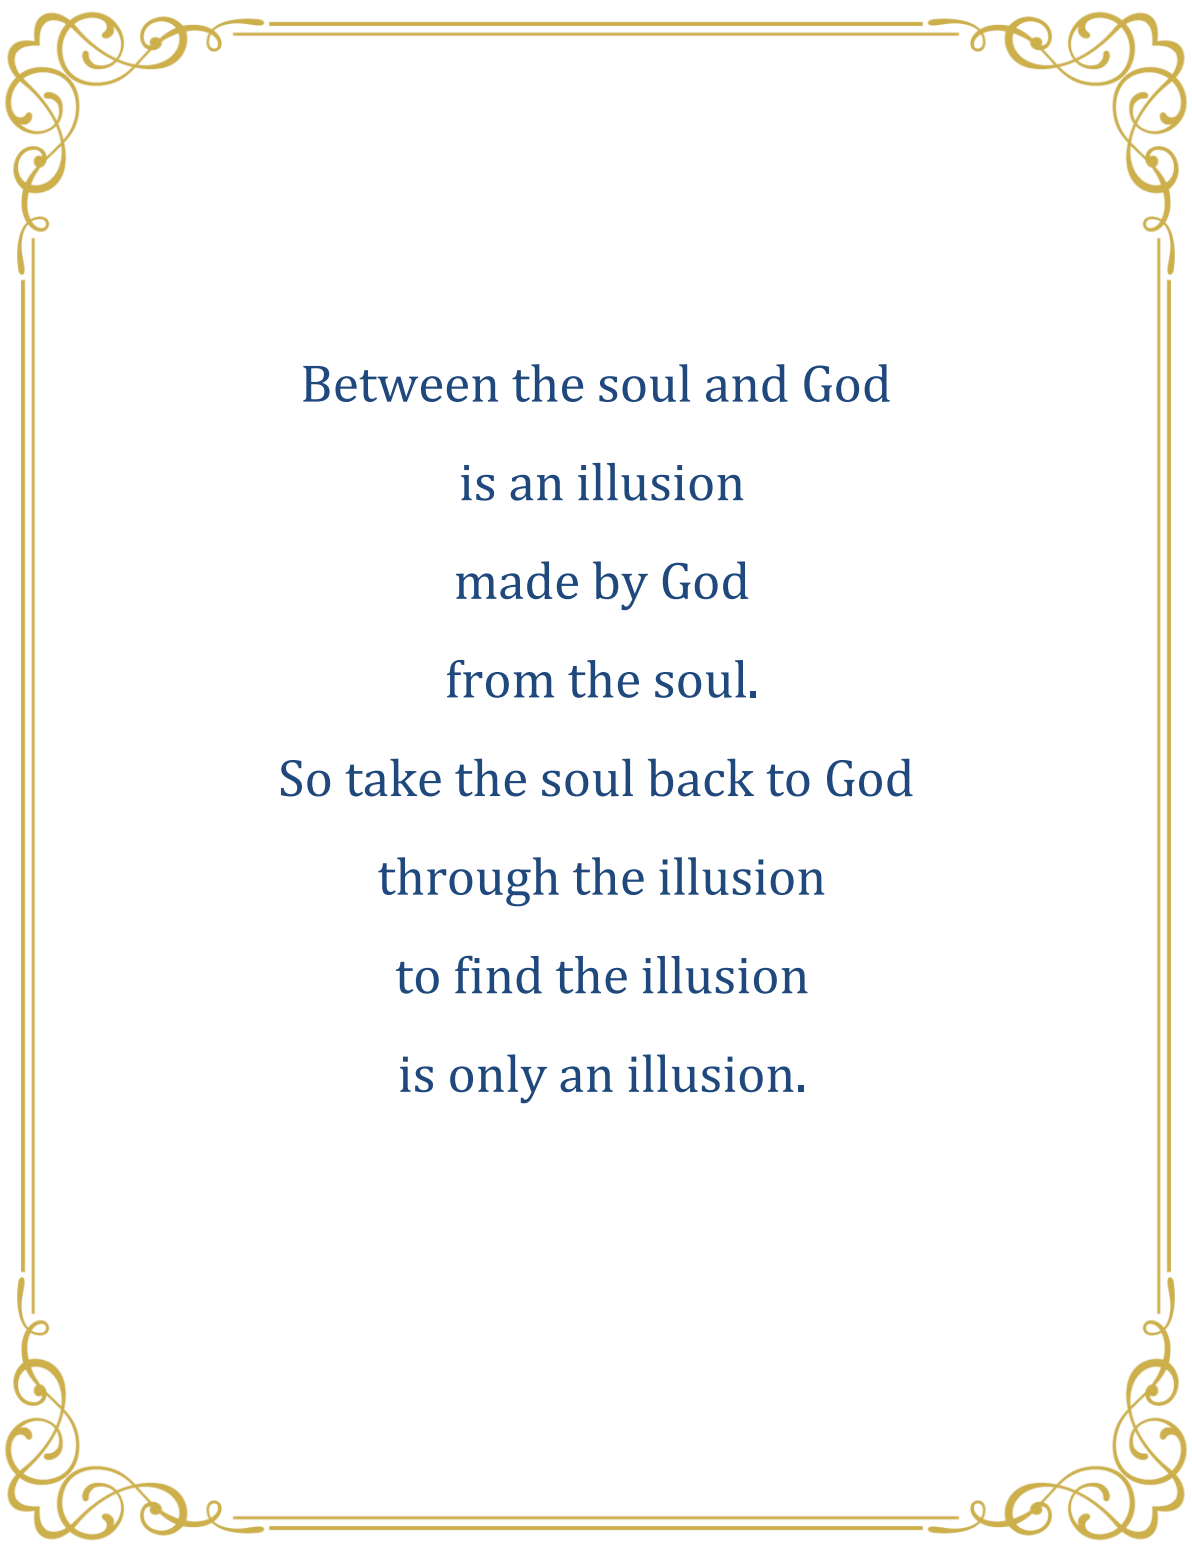

ON ILLUSION & AWAKENING

Any distance from reality is illusion.

Reality gives illusion
its endless mystery.

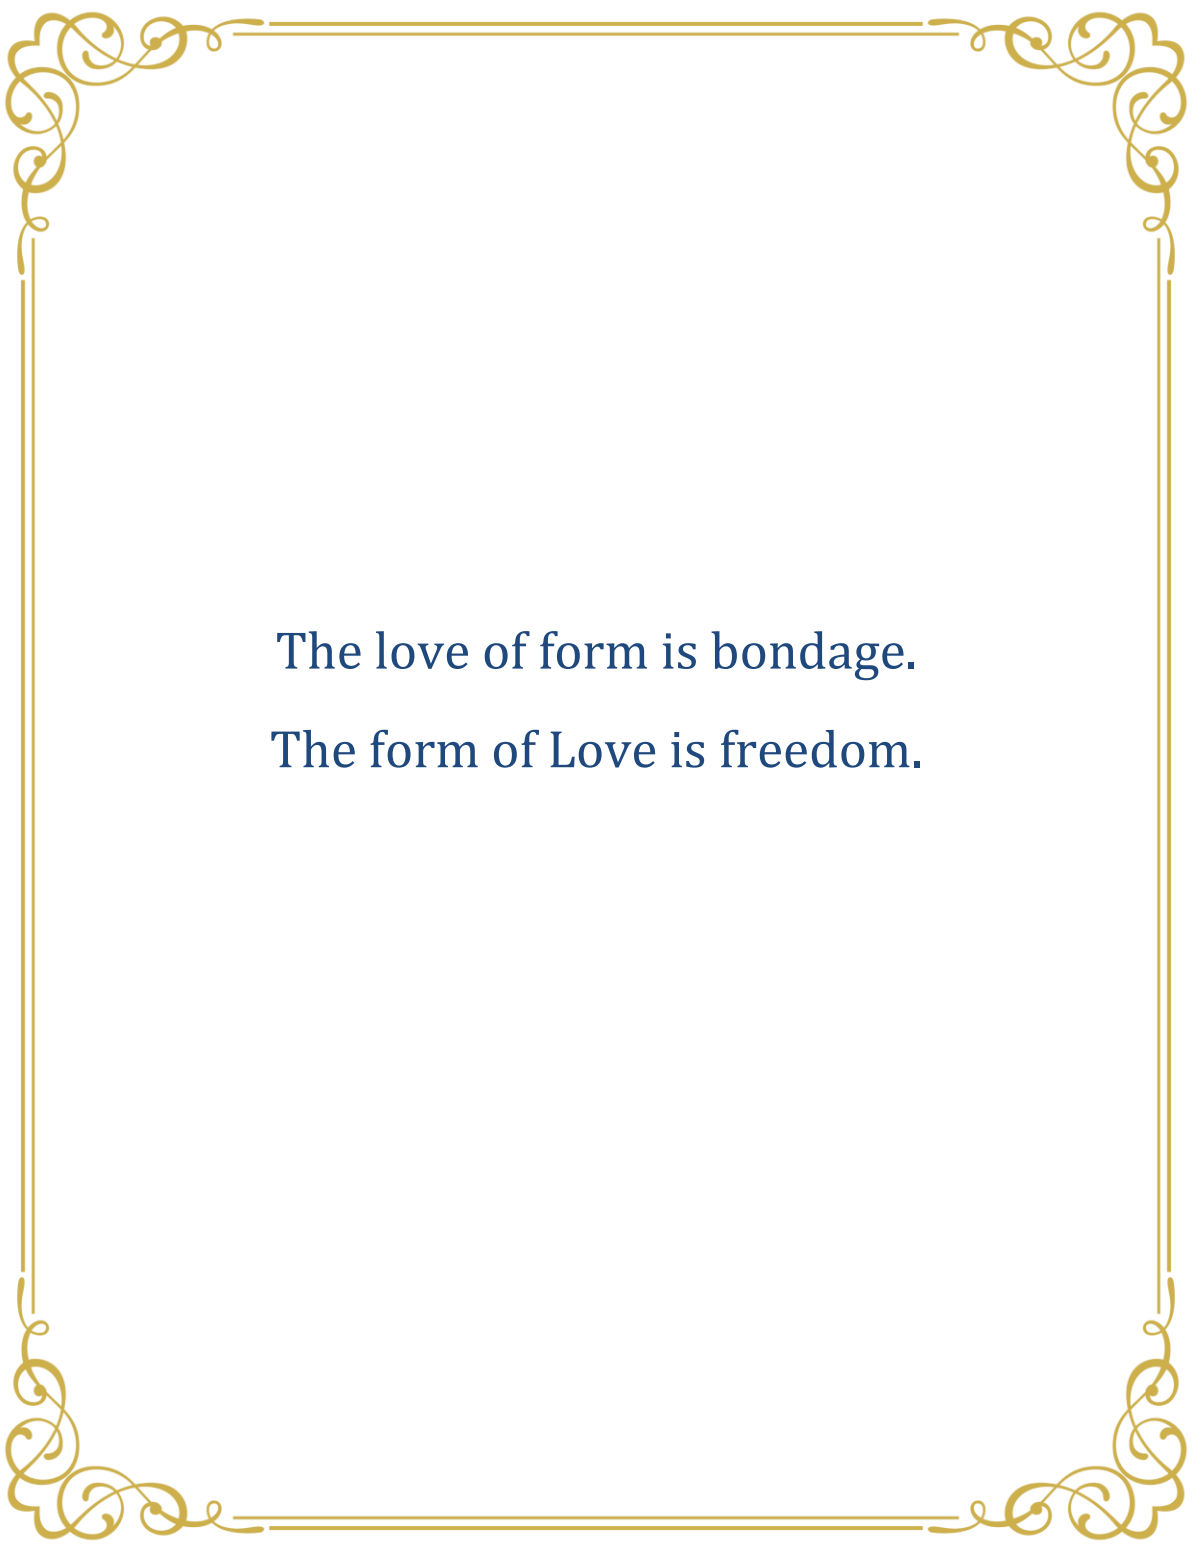

Between the soul and God
is an illusion
made by God
from the soul.

So take the soul back to God through the illusion
to find the illusion
is only an illusion.

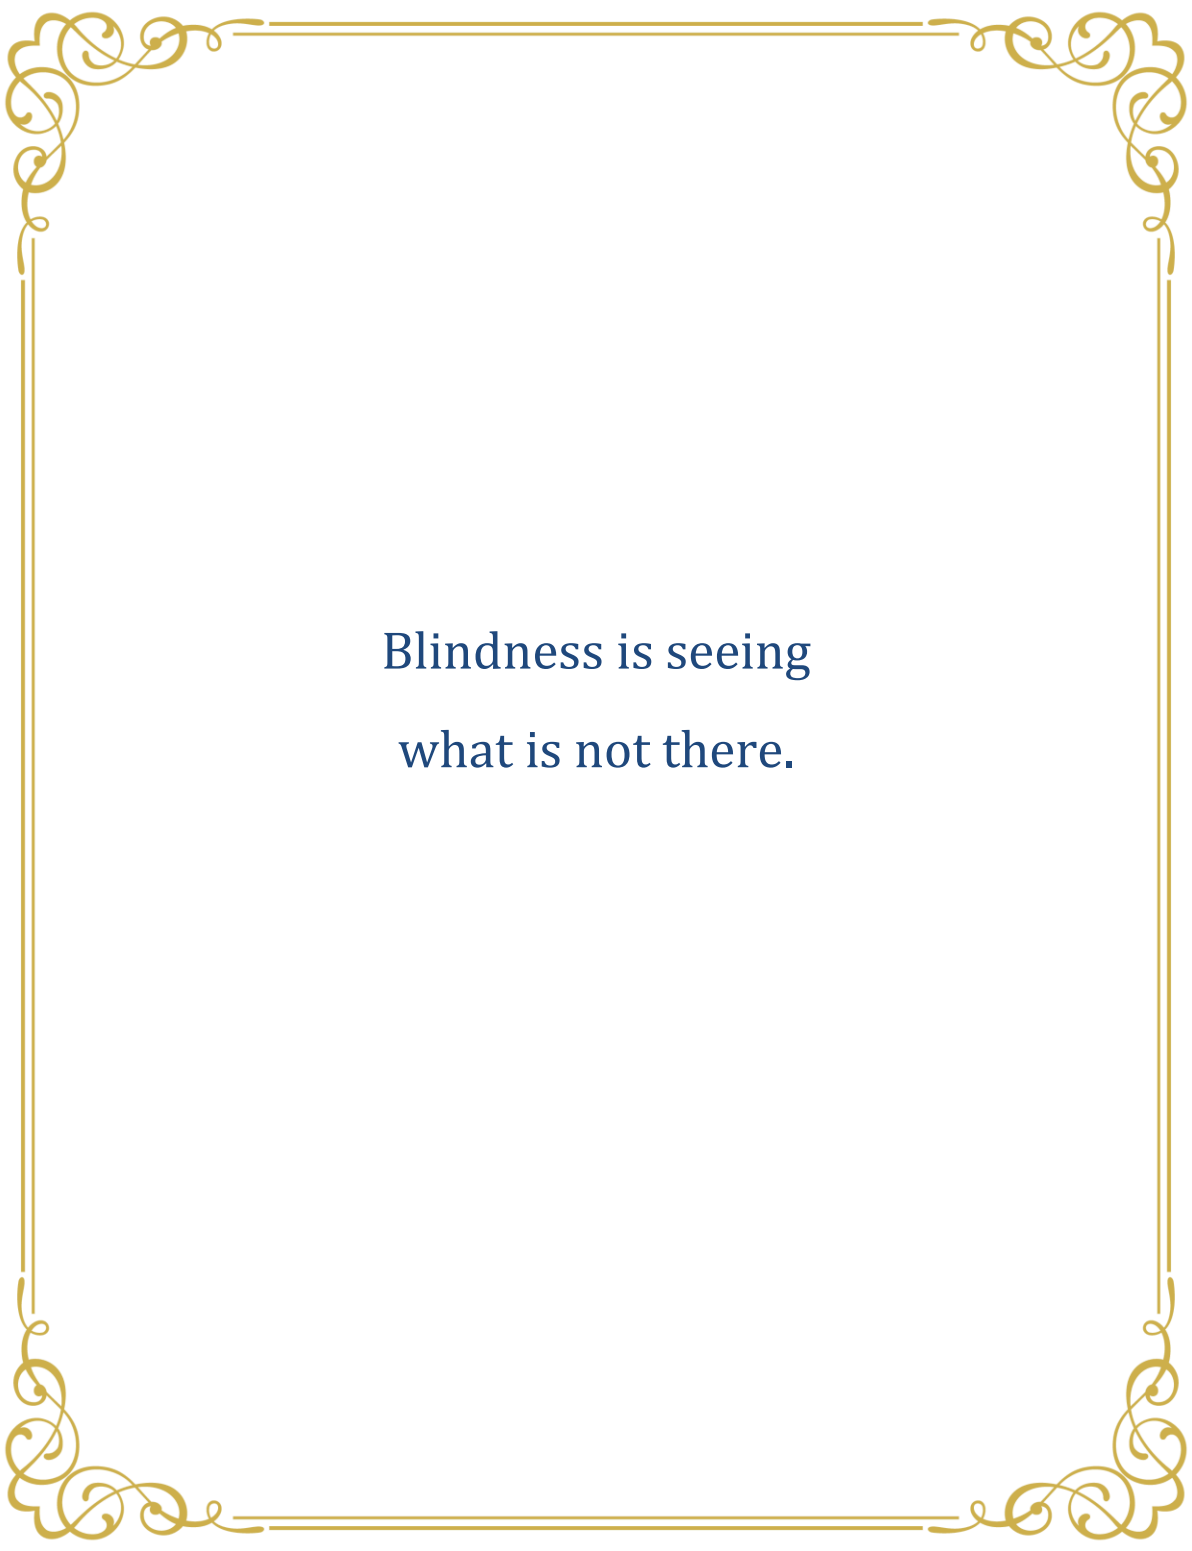

Clinging to forms
you will continuously change
and never know Truth,
which is changeless.

The love of form is bondage.
The form of Love is freedom.

The past is form.
The present is form.
The future is form.
But you are really formless
so what can you know
as reality,
and what reality
can you know ?

Blindness is seeing what is not there.

The world is a reflection
and not the reality.
Know God as He is,
not as he has been.

Sensual pleasures
have the substance of shadows.
Only fools
live in darkness.

The fool comes into the world to change it. The wise man comes into the world
to understand it.

The sage comes into the world to leave it.
